WELCOME

"There is one ... coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie." Untying sandal straps was no prestigious job. In the days of John the Baptist, those straps would have been especially unpleasant to deal with. Besides the usual odors that accompany sockless leather footwear, there would have been the grime and dirt from the sandy roads and paths that swirled around the people who went everywhere on foot. Taking off someone's shoes upon their arrival was the task of the lowly servants. So when John says he's unworthy of doing this task for the "one who is coming after me," he is putting himself in a very humble position. And rightly so.

John realizes that Christ - the Anointed One, the Messiah - is so far above him, so far above any of us, that we are truly unworthy of him. Indeed, the Son of God is not just the greatest of men; he is God-made-man and in his presence we most appropriately should bow in humble homage. Yet this God chose to stoop down to our human level and walk among us. He chose to get his sandals dirty. And still today he chooses to allow us to encounter him as a friend and companion.

But as John reminds us by his example, this encounter with the Lord is not the result of our own merits or accomplishments. We are sinners who stand in need of Christ's help. But thanks be to God, he is always willing to extend this help to us. As St. Paul says in today's epistle, "May the God of peace make you perfectly holy." Indeed it is God who does the perfecting, not us by our own power. So let us approach the Lord this Advent season with a spirit of hopeful humility, trusting that God alone can make us worthy of welcoming his Son.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

A religious sister writes, "When we see the generous response of so many thousands of persons in order to help us, religious men and women, we are left speechless." Senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests across the country send heartfelt thanks and prayers for your donation to last week's Retirement Fund for Religious collection.

A Message from Fr. Mathew

Dear parishioners,

In case any of you wonder "Where is Fr. Mat?" after the new year, know that I am going home to visit with family from January 3rd until February 9th. During my absence, Fr. Maurice Maroney from Milford, CT, Fr. Bill Sokolowski from Torrington, CT, and Fr. Anthony Bruno from Somers, CT will be helping out our Parish.

Please keep me in your prayers so that I may have a safe journey. Thank you all for your thoughtfulness.

THE CATHOLIC MISSION AID SOCIETY THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH MISSIONARY CHILDHOOD ASSOCIATION OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

Dear Father Golas,

Thank you very much for the generous World Mission Sunday contribution of $4,097 from the people of Holy Family Church.

On World Mission Sunday, your parish community joined with Catholics throughout the world in support of the work and witness of the Mission Church, through which the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Please continue your connection with the Mission Church year round through MISSIO. Learn more about connecting your parish directly with those laboring in the Missions at missio.org.

Again, I am most grateful to you for encouraging the missionary spirit of prayer and sacrifice among your parishioners. Know that you and they remain in my prayers - and in the prayers of those they help in the Missions.

Sincerely,

Reverend Robert B. Vargo
Archdiocesan Director

St. Bernard School Welcomes You!

Where Faith and Knowledge Meet...

LITTLE ANGELS RECEIVE ADVENT BLESSING

On Monday, December 4th, students from Little Angels Catholic Preschool met inside St. Bernard Church to celebrate the First Week of Advent. While in church, students heard a brief explanation from teacher Mrs. Elaine Kosa regarding the hay placed in the manger in anticipation of the birth of baby Jesus, and some of the traditions Christians partake in regarding the display of Nativity sets in their homes. Fr. Golas blessed the hay and then lit the first candle on the Advent wreath, representing the first week of Advent.

Fr. Golas blesses the hay to be distributed to each of the children.

Fr. Golas lights the first candle on the Advent wreath, symbolizing the first week of Advent, while Michael McCracken, Isabella Moore and George Mena ask questions and look on.

Fifth graders from Mrs. Grout's class did a wonderful job with an Advent wreath ceremony during the holy day Mass on December 8th at the school. It added a very special touch to the celebration!
