THE NATIVITY OF
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

REFLECT

Tiny fingers and toes. A little yawn. A loud cry. An infant wrapped in swaddling clothes. "What will this child be?" It is a question every parent asks time and time again. As first steps are taken, as personalities emerge, as a child shows interest in reading or drawing or climbing, the question is on our lips. "What will this child be?" This question is asked as John the Baptist is born. Will he be a priest like his father? Does his strange, unexpected name signal a departure from that inheritance? Could Elizabeth and Zechariah ever have predicted what would be?

Under the tutelage of his priestly father, John "became strong in spirit." As an adult, John would retreat into the desert to preach repentance. He would attract a large following and eventually attract the attention of the rulers of the day. He would point out the adulterous ways of King Herod and would find himself in prison. Eventually, he would be beheaded. But today, he is a child, an infant newly born.

On this special feast, we're reminded of the great humility required of parents. The character formation, the discipline and encouragement, the violin lessons and soccer practices. Every parental effort is subjected to the decisions of the child them self. Even children on a sure track by high school graduation transform under life's circumstances. Entrusting our children to God can be incredibly intimidating. "What will this child be," especially when that transformation lies outside of my control? John the Baptist's story might not have ended as his parents imagined. But he is celebrated as the greatest of the prophets, as the one who prepared the way for the Messiah. Here is the hope of all Christian parents -- that our children would be raised in such a way that when people meet them, they meet Jesus Christ.

Read, Reap and Rise!

Come to know Jesus more fully in the Bible while you grow in faith. Classes are now forming in Bloomfield, East Haven, New Britain and Waterbury. Thirty weekly classes per year enable adults to read the Bible prayerfully with fuller understanding. Enrolling through August.

Find out more online at www.CatholicEdAOHCT.org, or contact the Archdiocese of Hartford directly: 860-242-5573; or go to catholic.biblical.school@aohct.org.

Serving Others in God's Love

Religious Freedom Week
June 22–29, 2018

Religious Freedom Week will take place from June 22nd – 29th, 2018. It begins with the feast day of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, includes the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, and ends with the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul.

The theme for this year is Serving Others in God's Love. Religious freedom is necessary if we are to have the space to continue to serve in areas like education, adoption and foster care, health care, and migration and refugee services. USCCB has produced resources for prayer and action on these issues for each day of the week. We encourage Christians to reflect on the importance of religious freedom so that the Church might have space to carry out her mission of service and mercy. We also invite Christians to pray for our brothers and sisters who face intense persecution in other parts of the world.

A major area of concern this year is freedom for child welfare service providers. The opioid crisis is putting a strain on the foster care system. The number of children in need is going up. The number of families willing to take the children into their homes is going down. And in places like Illinois, Massachusetts, California, and D.C., the service providers who have a track record of excellence in recruiting and assisting foster families have been shut down.

The federal Child Welfare Provider Inclusion Act (H.R. 1881 / S. 811) would protect the religious liberty of child welfare service providers, including adoption and foster care agencies. Similar legislation has been introduced and passed in several states. All are encouraged to check out the USCCB Action Alert Center and state Catholic conference websites for legislative updates on this and other important policy issues!

SPRING MUSICAL A HIT!

"It's a Hit" musical was presented by the St. Bernard School Drama Club (grades 5 - 8) and featured singing baseball fans from kindergarten to 6th grade. The lively production was directed by talented faculty members Amy Kundrat and April Stich, and the always excellent music direction was by Beth Ann Surapine. The students sported their favorite baseball jerseys and caps, and performed songs such as "Play Ball," "You're at Bat," "Strike Zone", and "All Stars." This light-hearted production was a "home-run" for all involved!
