WELCOME

How are your Lenten resolutions coming along? By the time week two rolls around, plenty of well-meaning people have skipped, neglected, or outright forgotten their Lenten resolutions at least once. It can be easy to start excusing our Lenten commitments altogether.

Last week we saw Jesus driven into the desert. This Sunday, we see Jesus leading his disciples to an equally barren place: he "led them up a high mountain apart by themselves." But what happens there? "And he was transfigured before them and his clothes became dazzling white." Today's Gospel reminds us of the goal. We don't enter into the desert for the sake of suffering, but for the sake of transformation.

Mountain imagery is prevalent throughout Scripture. The sacrifice of Isaac, Moses receiving the 10 Commandments, Elijah's revelation of God as a tiny whispering sound: all these occur on the mountaintop. Mountains are strenuous to hike. To assist the traveler in the ascent, trails often involve switchbacks. These lead the traveler back and forth across the mountainside, sometimes appearing as if hardly any ground is gained. Perhaps Peter, James, and John hiked a similar path as Jesus led them up the side of Mount Tabor.

A climb is difficult. A climb in a barren place leaves you thirsty, exhausted, and quite possibly frustrated or discouraged. Yet this is precisely how Jesus leads his closest disciples. Why? Because he has something to reveal to them. Practically speaking, Jesus needed to bring Peter, James and John away from the crowds for this revelation of glory to remain hidden. There are spiritual truths we will encounter only if we pass through difficulty. So let's persevere this Lent! Today's Gospel invites us to trust that, if we persevere in following Jesus, he'll lead us to something beautiful and glorious as well.

ARE YOU LISTENING?

Peter, James, and John saw the Lord transfigured before their eyes and heard, "This is my son, my beloved, listen to him." Are you listening? If you are hearing a call to priesthood or religious life, call Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Archdiocesan Pastoral Center, (860) 761-7457, e-mail vocations@aohct.org, or visit the web at www.hartfordpriest.com.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Details will be discussed in the upcoming Confirmation classes this Sunday evening, February 25th at 6:30 pm at St. Bernard Church and Monday evening, February 26th at 7:00 pm at Holy Family Church.

If any child in the Parish would like children's offertory envelopes, please contact Mrs. Chase in the Religious Education Office.

FATHER-DAUGHTER DANCE A SWEET TREAT

"This event is the highlight of our year," says Clayton Daigle, proud father of Emaleigh, a 4th grader at St. Bernard School.

That sentiment seemed to be shared by many of the dads and daughters at the annual Father-Daughter Dance held at St. Bernard School hall on Saturday night, February 10th. This year's theme was Mardi Gras, which was easy to see with all of the festive green, gold and purple decorations, dress, and even the snacks!

Depending on their age, the excited girls ran, skipped, and danced around the hall, sometimes with their dad or grandfather, and sometimes with their friends. To make the event extra special, the lighting (by Vision Sound), professional photos (by Rebekah Lee), and music provided by school parent DJ Victor Ventura, were all donated.

Kelly Parrott, President of the P.T.A. and event organizer for the past 9 years, has a photo collage of her daughter, Dilyn, attending the dance from when she was in pre-school to this, her last year, since she is now in 8th grade. Megan Hayes, another 8th grader who has attended these dances since pre-school, said "These dances are something that I will always remember. It's been really special these last 11 years, and holds many memories for me."

Megan's dad, David, agrees, saying, "In a flash, I went from carrying her in my arms for the first couple of dances, to looking up at the beautiful young lady she has become, due in part to St. Bernard School. This has been a special bond for us."

Clayton Daigle with daughter Emaleigh.

These fathers and daughters are ready for the celebration!

CONFESSION

During Lent, Confession will be offered at both Holy Family Church and St. Bernard Church from 6:00 pm - 7:00 pm every Monday.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

The prayer shawl is a "symbolic" hug from God.

Our mission is to provide hope, comfort, and healing to those who most need a reminder of God's love, mercy, and compassion for both the recipient and the crafter. The shawls are freely given with no strings attached. They are given to console those who are suffering in some way, for example, someone who is seriously ill or who is grieving. As we begin to knit each shawl, prayers and blessings are said for the person who will receive it. Upon completion, it is prayed over and blessed.

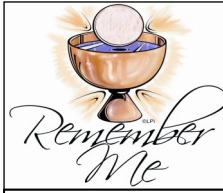

To request a shawl: at St. Bernard Church, please contact Deb at (860) 763-1602; at Holy Family Church, contact the rectory or the Bereavement Committee. A few shawls will also be available to sign out near the door of each Church.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

At St. Bernard Church, the sanctuary candle in the church burns in memory of Joe Maruca. Contact the SB church office for information about having the sanctuary candles burn for your intention.

2018 ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

This weekend marks the start of the 2018 Archbishop's Annual Appeal in our parish. If you haven't already, you will soon receive a letter from Archbishop Blair seeking your support. As Catholics in the Archdiocese of Hartford we have a profound impact on our local communities not only in the spiritual realm, but intimately connected to it, the realm of social services and many charities and outreach services performed by, or with help from, our Church.

In the most recent edition of the Catholic Transcript, Archbishop Blair described the Archbishop's Annual Appeal as the "bread and butter" fundraiser of archdiocesan life. It is "bread and butter" for the widest range of Archdiocesan activities. Whatever is collected for the Appeal in a given year is spent in that year, for everything from our seminarians' education to the grants made to approximately 250 local charities throughout the archdiocese that receive financial support in the name of the Catholic people.

- For the second year in a row, in 2017, the Archbishop's Annual Appeal Vicariate Outreach Program provided over $1,000,000 to nearly 250 local organizations in Hartford, Litchfield and New Haven counties.
- Organizations such as Enfield Food Shelf, Felician Sisters Adult Day Care, Little Sisters of the Poor, and St. Vincent dePaul Society right here in our own town received funding from the Appeal's Vicariate Outreach Program that make a difference in serving our neighbors.

Please respond generously.
