ENFIELD YOUTH LACROSSE CLINIC HOSTED BY ST. BERNARD SCHOOL

St. Bernard's School gym in Enfield was filled with area youngsters learning how to scoop, cradle, and throw, among other basic lacrosse skills on Saturday. The clinic was organized by Vicki Mitchell, Director of Advancement and Admissions at SBS, and JT Galloway, lacrosse coach at Enfield High School. "I thought the clinic was a great success," said Coach Galloway. "We focused on teaching the fundamentals and having fun. I was impressed with how much improvement the boys and girls showed. The support we received from the families was amazing. We had some parents jump in and work with us on some drills. All in all, it was a very positive experience." "We're happy to offer our facility for an activity like this," said Vicki. "It's one way we can reach out and serve our community." Coach Galloway and his assistant, Coach Michelle Burlingame, are forming an Enfield Youth Lacrosse team. The SBS clinic was open to both boys and girls from kindergarten to 8th grade. Players who enjoyed the clinic (and it seems like everyone did!) were encouraged to sign up for the new league. Others who are interested may contact Coach Galloway at eylcoachgalloway@gmail.com.
