FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

REFLECT

Are you ready for a trim? In today's Gospel, we hear the familiar teaching of the vine and the branches. Jesus reminds us that if we remain close to him—living in humility, following God's law, loving our neighbor—we will notice a positive change in our life and the lives of those around us. "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit." The Holy Spirit is life-giving. He is fruitful. The Spirit of God won't refuse grace to a heart that is open.

As we progress through life, learning how to live and love, we grow. Our personalities flower. We discover what it is to be a blessing to others. We also experience lack, loss, and the results of our failures. We know what it is like to "wither" at times, particularly the times when we willingly separate ourselves from Jesus. "Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me." For most of us, this experience of being disconnected and off track generates a desire to return to what is right and good, to return to the vine.

But this Gospel is more than "Are you in or are you out?" Even when we remain in God, when we follow Jesus, we are not exempt from the challenge, the pruning. "Everyone that [bears fruit] he prunes." A prudent trim is necessary in the natural world of trees and vines. Dead wood, broken shoots, and diseased branches need to be cut back in order for the plant to bear fruit. Jesus wants us to be healthy! He says as much himself: "By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples." Take a look at your life today. Where are you bearing fruit? Where do you need to be pruned?

From Fr. John Golas,

The Annual Financial and Pastoral Reports are included in this week's bulletin. The report shows positive results for 2017. I think it reflects the generosity and commitment of our parishioners. I appreciate the many ways that our parishioners are involved in contributing for the betterment of the Parish and community. I want to thank you for your continued support. The merger process involves many steps, discussions, and decisions about our future. I am pleased to say there is a very positive attitude toward the whole process. It is a process that is necessary for these times and does involve changes of all sorts. I believe this positive outlook will bring about a result that is the best for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish.

I would also like to report a change concerning our Religious Education Program that will occur this September. The Saturday morning Religious Education Program (CCD) for Grades 1 - 6 will be moving into St. Bernard School on Pearl St. This change is brought about because of the merger. The Parish has a facility to accommodate our Religious Education Program. This will provide a savings for our Parish budget. In addition, there will be safety and control in our school since it is our own facility. The school has a strong sense of Catholic identity in the classrooms and other areas. With the school gym available, there will be the opportunity for assemblies, prayer services and other group functions. I am grateful to the Town of Enfield, the Board of Education, and the principal of JFK school for allowing classes to be held in their facility. It was a tremendous help to Holy Family Church.

With the merger, there are two churches of the Parish and one St. Jeanne Jugan Religious Education Program in two locations. In the fall of 2018, all Religious Education students in Grades K - 10 Parish wide will be on the same comprehensive curriculum with the same series of text books published by Loyola Press. I would like to commend and thank Beth Chase, the Parish Director of Religious Education and her staff of Nancy Marco and Jane Sutphin for their efforts in organizing this critical area of our Parish life.

Finally, I have heard from parishioners in both Churches that one of the Churches is closing. I am not sure where this is coming from but I can say definitively that the merger on June 29th, 2017 involved both Holy Family Church and St. Bernard Church. Last June, there were many church closings but not in our Parish. Decisions about how we organize St. Jeanne Jugan Parish are being discussed and considered. There is no plan about closing either Church. As you are aware, the Archdiocese is in a state of transition at the present time. I do not know fully what the future holds. I do know that any decisions to be made for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish will be the result of a collaborative process of our parishioners and pastoral leaders of the Parish. We must continue to focus on our goal of following the Lord Jesus as individuals and as a community and not be distracted by speculation.

7TH GRADE LIFE SCIENCE

As part of the 7th Grade Life Science Curriculum at St. Bernard School, Ms. Brooke Landry's students participated in their first dissection lab. Students and their lab partners observed and defined the internal organs and structures of their earthworm. A Trinocular Compound LED Microscope was used to view specimens up close. While participating in the lab, students from the lower grades came to observe while the 7th graders explained the steps they were taking during the dissection. The students will later illustrate what they have learned through a written science lab report.

7th Grade student Avery Osborn observes her cross section of the earthworm as she uses the new Trinocular Compound LED Microscope as her partner Brenna Delgado looks on.

Imago Dei Classical Academy, located in New Britain, is a two-day academic program designed to enrich and support the schooling of home-educated children and their families. At Imago Dei, we work to bring together the beauty and flexibility of Catholic homeschooling with the benefits of a structured, group, classroom environment. We work collaboratively with parents, supporting their efforts as the primary educators of their children. We consult with Mother of Divine Grace School to ensure high academic standards for our students and assistance with college preparation. Imago Dei tutors and students meet on Mondays and Thursdays in the classroom for instruction, discussion, oral presentation and study.
