SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

REFLECT

This Sunday's Gospel is known as the "priestly prayer" of Jesus. The entire passage is Jesus entrusting us to the Father. "When I was with them I protected them. I guarded them," Jesus says. He asks his Father, "Keep them in your name." In this prayer of Jesus, we see the paradoxical tension of our life as Christians in the world. He anticipates struggle for the believer. He describes it in strong words, words that could even appear frightening to the believer. "I gave them your word, and the world hated them." Not only that, but with our eyes on eternal life, we "do not belong to the world." And yet in the midst of those realities, Jesus doesn't take us out of the world. On the contrary, "as you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world."

Christians live in this tension daily. The call of Jesus often defies nice, neat categories. We uphold justice as virtue yet are invited to love our enemies. We offer gifts and generous hospitality to others while being reminded of the value of temperance. We are called to teach the truth of right and wrong without losing sight of the beam in our own eye. It can be difficult to find the balance in our own lives, and a Church that preaches moral perfection can easily fall under scrutiny when it falls short. In the midst of these complications, Jesus offers a message of hope. He is well aware of the contradictions into which he sends us, and his Father will equip us accordingly. "Consecrate them in truth." "Keep them from the evil one." Jesus does not abandon us to the tensions of our time but remains near at hand by the grace alive in his Church.

ALTAR SERVERS

Holy Family Church and St. Bernard Church are looking for new recruitments for altar servers. This is a great opportunity for any child in Grade 3 and up to become involved with the Liturgy of the Mass and to give service to their Church. It helps them realize that part of being a member of the Church is to participate fully in the Liturgy. Please call Mrs. Chase at 860-749-2993 for details.

NOVENA PRAYER TO ST. JEANNE JUGAN

Jesus, you rejoiced and praised your Father for having revealed to little ones the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven.

We thank you for the graces granted to your humble servant, Jeanne Jugan, to whom we confide our petitions and needs.

Father of the poor, you have never refused the prayer of the lowly, we ask you therefore to hear the petitions that she presents to you on our behalf...

Jesus, through Mary, your Mother and ours, we ask this of you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Saint Jeanne Jugan, pray for us.

Please pray for Debbie (Markowski) Lanagan as she awaits a kidney donor.

If you would like to request prayers for a loved one to help them through an illness or a difficult time please call the Holy Family Church rectory at 860-741-2101.

At St. Bernard Church, the sanctuary candle in the church burns in memory of Eva Gaudette, at the request of her daughter.

GREAT GARDENING!

It's time again for the St. Joseph's and Little Sisters of the Poor vegetable garden. Last year's garden was so bountiful that we were able to supply the St. Joseph's residents, Little Sisters of the Poor and the Felician Sisters with fresh vegetables throughout the summer and into the fall and were able to donate a plethora of vegetables to the Enfield Loaves and Fishes Program. Now that's great gardening!

St. Jeanne Jugan parishioners are needed to help make a successful garden again this year. Volunteers are needed for rototilling, watering, and weeding throughout the summer. We are also looking for donations including vegetable plants and heavy-duty tomato cages. Monetary donations are always welcomed! Checks may be made payable to St. Jeanne Jugan Parish with the word "Garden" in the memo.

Please contact Pat and Kevin Margolfo at 860-306-0495 for more information, to volunteer, or to schedule a donation drop-off.

Let's make this year's garden another great garden!
