REFLECT

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God." What is a kingdom? Is it the brick and mortar that build up the castle? Is it the expanse of land a king can reasonably defend? Our notions of kingdoms may be romanticized in the modern era, but for the Israelites, a kingdom held deep historical meaning. Thousands of years before the birth of Christ, the Israelites had asked God for a king. After the reigns of David and Solomon, the united kingdom dissolved into factions, and the land was conquered by the Assyrians, Babylonians, and, finally, Romans. For the Israelites, a kingdom was something to build, both structurally and civilly. While this had ended in ruin for their ancestors, many of Jesus' contemporaries longed for the restoration of an earthly kingdom.

Jesus' words in today's Gospel are a radical departure from this perspective. He compares the Kingdom of God to a field, but it appears that the farmer has little to do with its progress. "The seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord, the land yields fruit." Jesus introduces his followers to a new sort of kingdom, a kingdom where God provides the growth.

There is work to be done, of course. "When the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." But for the Kingdom of God to flourish, there are certain things that are outside of our control. We sow seeds of kindness, justice, and integrity and then we must be patient. As shoots of faith appear, we nurture the growth with encouragement. As Christians, our task is not to build the Kingdom of God under our power alone, but to trust in the life-giving movement of God.

Religious Freedom Week
June 22-29, 2018

Catholics across the United States are encouraged to pray and act in support of religious liberty at home and abroad during Serving Others in God's Love: Religious Freedom Week 2018, which begins on June 22nd, the Feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, and ends on June 29th, the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul.

The chairman of the USCCB's Committee for Religious Liberty, Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz of Louisville, states: "Religious freedom allows the space for people of faith to serve others in God's love in ministries like education, adoption and foster care, health care, and migration and refugee services. We encourage people of faith to reflect on the importance of religious freedom so that we might have the space to carry out our mission of service and mercy, and we invite everyone to pray for our brothers and sisters who face intense persecution in other parts of the world."

Resources for Religious Freedom Week and other religious liberty resources can be found at GREAT GARDENING!

It's time again for the St. Joseph's and Little Sisters of the Poor vegetable garden. Last year's garden was so bountiful that we were able to supply the St. Joseph's residents, Little Sisters of the Poor and the Felician Sisters with fresh vegetables throughout the summer and into the fall and were able to donate a plethora of vegetables to the Enfield Loaves and Fishes Program. Now that's great gardening!

St. Jeanne Jugan parishioners, friends and neighbors are needed to help make a successful garden again this year. Volunteers are needed for rototilling, watering, and weeding throughout the summer. We are also looking for donations including vegetable plants and heavy-duty tomato cages. Monetary donations are always welcomed! Checks may be made payable to St. Jeanne Jugan Parish with the word "Garden" in the memo.

Please contact Pat and Kevin Margolfo at 860-306-0495 for more information, to volunteer, or to schedule a donation drop-off.

Let's make this year's garden another great garden!
