TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

REFLECT

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Jesus asks a similar question in different Gospel passages, but the request of James and John is not repeated on any other occasion. "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." They ask not for knowledge of God, not for crooked limbs to be straightened nor for the blind to see. They ask for power and authority. Jesus' response should trouble them. "You do not know what you are asking."

"Can you drink the cup that I drink?" Jesus asks. "They said to him, 'We can.'" But what is Christ's cup? Could James and John have possibly known it or understood it here at the height of Jesus' ministry? Jesus' cup is the cup of trial, of difficulty, of public ridicule. His final, thirsting sip occurs as he hangs on the cross. In Christ's kingdom, drinking his cup and participating in his life are not the sharing of power the way we are accustomed. Jesus flips their paradigm. "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

The cup of Jesus is the cup of giving oneself. "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." As Christians, how easy it can be to want the acclaim of good deeds, the gratitude for volunteering, the attention for donating to the church. "It shall not be so among you." If you are overlooked, offer thanks to God for imitating Jesus, rather than bitter complaint at someone else's oversight. Look for opportunities to do good deeds unnoticed. This week, consider one way you can drink the cup of Jesus!

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

God is calling new vocations to the priesthood, religious life and the diaconate. Are you one of them?

The Archdiocese of Hartford welcomes inquiries from men seeking to serve the Church as priests or deacons and from men and women who are discerning a vocation to the consecrated life as a religious brother or sister.

To talk about a priestly vocation, contact Father Michael Casey, Vocation Director, at 860-761-7456 or by email at vocations@aohct.org.

For information about religious life and men's and women's religious communities, contact Sister Mariette Moan, Vicar for Religious, at 860-541-6491.

For those seeking information about the diaconate, contact Deacon Robert Pallotti, Director of the Office of the Diaconate, at 860-242-5573 ext. 7447.

Next weekend is the last weekend to return your filled Box of Joy or to make a monetary donation. Thank you for your support and for helping to spread the joy!

PROPAGATION OF FAITH (WORLD MISSION SUNDAY)

This weekend, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926, the annual day encourages prayers, cooperation and help for missions as well as reminds Christians about the fundamental missionary character of the Church and of every baptized person. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers, and be generous in this week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

CHRISTMAS VOLUNTEERS

Do you want to be a volunteer who can make a difference in someone's life this Christmas? Do you want to be able to volunteer on your own schedule with no meetings to attend or clock to punch? Do you like to shop? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, your volunteer opportunity is here! So many families in Enfield reach out to the St. Vincent de Paul Society every year and even more so at Christmas time. This is where you can help. The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of St. Jeanne Jugan Parish - Holy Family Church chooses a deserving family(s) and obtains a "wish list" from the family(s). A group of volunteers works together to make a joyful Christmas happen for that family(s).

This is anonymous for both the families and the volunteers. As a volunteer, you donate your time and money by shopping for items on the "wish list". Don't have time to shop, but still want to help? You can donate gift cards. What would be the perfect gift card? The St. Jeanne Jugan Holiday Gift Card! You can help support our Parish and school by donating a St. Jeanne Jugan Holiday Gift Card(s) to the family(s) so they can do their own shopping or have a nice holiday meal at a local restaurant. The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of St. Jeanne Jugan Parish - Holy Family Church distributes the gifts to the family(s) before Christmas. To find out more about becoming a volunteer for this Christmas season, search "2018 Adopt A Family - Enfield CT" on Facebook and request to join the group, e-mail Allison at Allison.castoldi@gmail.com, or call Allison at 860-508-3106.
