THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

SEEING WITH GOD'S EYES

REFLECT

In 1 Samuel, God advises the prophet Samuel not to observe as men see but as God sees. He tells him to "look to the heart." This is the movement of this Sunday's Gospel reading. "Beware the scribes," Jesus advises. He points out their public greetings and "seats of honor," which stands in sharp contrast to their private greed. For the Jewish people of Jesus' day, honor resides at the top. Power and prestige created a high profile back then as it still does today. After his warning, Jesus turns his disciples' attention elsewhere: a poor widow.

"She, from her poverty, has contributed all she had." While the scribes donated large sums to the temple, they did so "from their surplus wealth." This woman -- in her faith and devotion -- offers "her whole livelihood." Jesus invited his disciples to see with God's eyes, to recognize a holy life in people the world overlooks. Here -- in the poor, the vulnerable, the marginalized -- God waits hidden.

Today's Gospel begs a few questions. What do we see? Whom do we value? Are we impressed by the pomp and circumstance of modern day Pharisees? Do we ignore their self-righteousness because it looks impressive, even seems somewhat helpful? The point isn't to judge the scribes, of course. God can see their hearts as well, and those assessments are firmly his responsibility. The point is to turn our eyes from the typically honored to the rarely respected. Are we disinterested in the poverty of the modern day widows? Do we ignore their faith because we forget to look for it? This Sunday, consider the widows in your own life. Who can you see with God's eyes?

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Next week, our second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Over 43 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities. FROM FR. GOLAS,

The winter policy for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish - Holy Family Church and St. Bernard Church will be in effect for daily Masses Monday – Friday beginning December 3rd. The policy states that when Enfield Public Schools cancel or delay school on that day, the daily 7:30 am Mass at St. Bernard Church and the daily 9 am Mass at Holy Family Church will be cancelled for that day. The policy is for the safety of all. The intentions for the Masses will be rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time.

I would like to announce a change in the hours for Friday Eucharistic Adoration. Beginning on December 7th, the period of Adoration after the 9 am Mass at Holy Family Church will conclude with Benediction at noon. It has been a challenge to maintain the minimum two persons per hour to be present in church for the Adoration. I commend those faithful individuals who have extended their hours to honor the Lord present in the Eucharist. The regularly scheduled Holy Hour at St. Bernard Church every first Friday at 3 pm in the chapel will continue. This hour includes Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Adoration, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, evening prayer, and Benediction. This tradition of Eucharistic Adoration is another way the Lord is present to us in our lives. These changes are made with respect to those who are involved in these prayer services.

SENIOR LUNCH

At 12 noon on Tuesday, November 13th in Fr.

Fitzmaurice Hall at St. Jeanne Jugan Parish - St. Bernard Church, good old-fashioned comfort food will be served!

Who could resist Shepherd's Pie and carrot cake for dessert?

What a way to stay warm as the fall weather sets in. All are welcome to attend -- no minimum age required!

Please call Barbara Bird at 860-749-0534 to reserve a seat, if you did not sign up at the October meal.

THANKSGIVING FOOD COLLECTION

The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of St. Bernard Church will be handing out shopping bags after all Masses this weekend for their annual Thanksgiving food collection.

Fitzmaurice Hall at St. Jeanne Jugan Parish - St. Bernard Church the weekend of November 17th and 18th, as volunteers will be packing food baskets for distribution to families on Sunday, November 18th. As always, we appreciate the exceptional generosity our parishioners have always shown for the benefit of our community neighbors.

Decorative items and mementos of any kind are not allowed and will be removed and discarded. Check the Cemetery Rules sign or please call the Cemetery Office at 860-745-2411 with any questions.
