Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

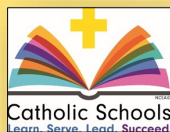

REFLECT

When you think of being Catholic, what do you think of? Perhaps you grew up with your only associations being fasting, nuns with rulers, and "Catholic guilt." Our faith can sometimes have the connotation of restriction and absence, not abundance. Who is God in your life? Is He the divine law-giver, the judge punishing the rule-breakers? These are certainly attributes of God. But the laws don't exist for themselves alone. They exist to help us love one another as God loves us. And this loving God is the author of abundance and joy.

Did you hear today's Gospel? "There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee." Here at this wedding, Jesus would perform "the beginning of his signs...and so reveal his glory." This first sign isn't a miraculous healing. He didn't raise someone from the dead. He kept a party going! "There were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons...the water...had become wine." The wine has run out. Jesus creates somewhere between 120 and 180 gallons to help his friend save face. We may not have such momentous miracles in our lives, but God is watching out for us. The string of green lights when you're running late. The sale on the replacement appliance you need. The friend who calls at just the right time. These are the little moments of God's abundance. We just need to look for them!

Not only does Jesus surprise, but the guests point out to their host: "You have kept the good wine until now." The divine wine is better than the earthly variety. God's goodness is better than what we can grasp at for ourselves. Isn't that how it always goes?

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK January 27 – February 2, 2019

Catholic Schools Week, celebrated nationally this year from January 27 – February 2, provides a great opportunity for families to explore the excellence of Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Hartford. Parents and prospective students are encouraged to attend a nearby Catholic school Open House to discover the many benefits of a Catholic education. To locate a Catholic school in your area, visit the website, <https://catholicedaohct.org/> and select "Find a School" on the Homepage. To access a list of Catholic school Open House dates on the website, select "Upcoming Events," on the Homepage, then "Catholic Schools Week." Our Catholic schools look forward to sharing a warm Catholic Schools Week welcome with all visiting families!
