FOURTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

SPEAKING THROUGH THE UNEXPECTED

REFLECT

Today's Gospel is one of tension and contradiction. We enter the scene at the local synagogue. It is near the beginning of Jesus' earthly ministry, and he has returned home to Nazareth for a short while. There, in the midst of the men who watched him grow up and who played with him as a boy in the dusty streets, Jesus proclaims that he is the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecies of Isaiah. The response is understandably mixed. "All spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, 'Isn't this the son of Joseph?'"

Jesus reminds them - none too gently - of the Israelites' rejection of the prophets throughout history. Not only did the people ignore Elijah and Elisha, but they worked miracles among the pagans instead. Then comes the rage. "They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong."

No one likes to be reminded of their own faults. In the deeply religious Jewish society, nobody wanted to be the unfaithful one. Jesus exposes the sins of the community, and it drives them not to conversion, but to rage. We can consider our own time. How often, when someone is contracted, do they quickly resort to anger, name-calling, and undermining the reputation of the other? How quickly we want to destroy! This Sunday, we ought to consider our own lives. Do we listen to the prophetic voices around us, even when they threaten to upturn our expectations? If we hear something difficult, something that reminds us of our own sin, do we accept the opportunity to prayerfully ponder? If we allow ourselves to be open to the prophetic voices in our own lives, we'll notice that God speaks through the unexpected, if we have ears to hear it.

OFFERTORY GIFTS

If you are attending Mass and the intention of that Mass was at your request, we invite you to participate by bringing up the offertory gifts during that Mass. Please introduce yourself to an usher and show them where you are seated at least ten minutes before Mass begins. The usher will alert you when it is time to bring up the offertory gifts. This is a beautiful and solemn way to be a part of the Mass that is being offered for your loved one.

MASSES OF REPARATION FOR CLERGY SEXUAL ABUSE

Archbishop Leonard P. Blair has announced three Masses of Reparation to be offered in churches throughout the Archdiocese for the sins of clergy sexual abuse. Prayer and acts of reparation to God for these crimes and sins within our Church are critically important in conjunction with our current safe environment efforts. Everyone is invited to participate in these Masses as these sins have wounded us all. The Masses of Reparation are:

CANDY GRAMS TO BENEFIT ST. FRANCIS HOSPITAL NICU

From December 10th - 14th the 8th grade students at St. Bernard School sold candy grams to students and their families to send gifts to the St. Francis Hospital NICU. This sale raised $803 to buy Christmas presents for the babies in the St. Francis Hospital NICU. This service project was led by the students to spread holiday cheer and bring comfort to those at the St. Francis Hospital NICU during the holiday season. The presents include swaddle blankets made by the SBS Sewing and Knitting Club, preemie onesies, diapers, and stuffed animals.

Zachary Brooks and Willow Burt assemble candy grams.
