APRIL 21, 2019
EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION
OF THE LORD

REFLECT

Can you imagine that moment? Can you imagine the stomach drop with dizzying realization: "It's all true. All of it is true! The past three years weren't a dream that ended horribly wrong." Can you imagine all the doubts and despair of the past days chased away like smoke on the wind by a rolled up burial cloth? By an empty tomb?

It didn't start that way, of course. "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." This frantic news from Mary Magdalene would have been another unexpected blow. After all that happened, now his body has been stolen? The love and devotion in Peter and John is apparent. They don't wait to collect more information or stop by the tomb when they have a chance. They run to the site. When is the last time you ran for something? This isn't a run for exercise, but a huffing and puffing bolt fueled by desperation. Can you imagine that moment? The fear pounding in their temples, matching their accelerated heart rate. Can you imagine the impatient affection of John, who outruns Peter but refuses to enter the tomb alone? And then, upon entry, "He saw and believed."

This is the drama of our great feast! The promise that seemed lost has been found. The dead are raised. Long before the Easter eggs and ham, we are invited to meditate on this divine reality. We are invited to feel the desperation and joy of that first Easter Sunday deep in our bones. Because it is not just Mary's story. It's not Peter and John's story. It's our story. From the greatest defeat can come the most awe-inspiring victory, and this is true not just for our God, but for each one of us. He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Wishing all of our Religious Education Students, their families, our volunteers and our catechists a very warm and blessed Easter!

Love, Mrs. Chase

FROM FR. GOLAS:

Easter brings the dawn of a new day for humanity. It is the day when God raised Jesus from the dead and vindicated his teaching life and ministry. We share in the new life of Jesus by our Baptism and living out our belief that evil, sin, and death are not the final word. God offers us a word of hope, change and new life by our faith that Jesus lives and is with us in our lives now. With this belief, we can face all situations knowing there is divine help now and in the end a life with God without end in the kingdom of heaven. We can experience now the joy and peace only God can give.

On behalf of Fr. Mathew and the entire staff of St. Jeanne Jugan Parish, I offer my prayerful wish that all find this joy, hope and peace of Easter and many blessings for you and your families.

A LIFE IN THE SPIRIT SEMINAR

Are you ready for a change?
Let the Holy Spirit renew you.

This life-changing program will be held for seven consecutive Tuesdays from April 23rd to June 4th in the St. Martha School Cafeteria (Goulet Hall) at 214 Brainard Road in Enfield from 7 pm - 9 pm.

The seminar is offered free of charge and is sponsored by Our Lady of the Holy Spirit Prayer Group. For additional information or registration, please contact Peggi at 860-745-9861.

Paschal Candle

The Paschal Candle represents Christ, the Light of the World. The pure beeswax of the candle represents the sinless Christ who was formed in the womb of His Mother. The wick signifies His humanity; the flame, His Divine Nature, both soul and body. The Paschal Candle is lit each day during Mass throughout the Easter season until Pentecost.

This year's Paschal Candle at St. Bernard Church was made possible by a generous donation from:

Donald and Patricia Brierley
in memory of
Carol Ann Dziema
