FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

REFLECT

We all face obstacles in life. Perhaps it's a lost job, the death of a loved one, a sudden accident that places an unexpected dent in our finances. Sometimes the challenges are of our own making. Perhaps we've developed patterns of sin in our personal lives or our family relationships. We've all felt the jolting shock of, "This is all my fault." How do these things affect our relationship with God? Or, perhaps more poignantly, how do we now view God's relationship to us?

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' words to us are encouraging ones. "No one can take them out of my hand." Did you catch that? In case you didn't, Jesus reemphasizes the point again a few verses later. "My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand." God's grip of providential care and mercy is so strong that nothing can separate us. We might think things take us out of God's hand - life circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith - but Jesus tells us otherwise. Nothing, no one, can take us out of the Father's hand, and we can't take ourselves out! We can't remove ourselves from Him, not entirely. Even when grievous sin hardens us to grace, His love is still sustaining us in existence. And His mercy is always awaiting our repentance. "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us heed the voice of the Good Shepherd. Whatever we feel might take us from God's hand, we can turn back to Him. God is always inviting us to follow Him and to trust in His care and be sustained by His hand.

Next weekend is Commitment Weekend! All parishioners will have the opportunity to make a pledge to the 2019 Archbishop's Annual Appeal during Mass. Please visit the Appeal website at www.archdioceseofhartford.org to learn more or to make your gift today.

All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/aaa-2019-last-years-appeal-impact/>.
No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Currently enrolled students: Please get your CCD registrations in by mail for the fall.

Anyone new to the CCD program should call Mrs. Nancy Marco in the CCD Office at 860-745-7770 for information.

The May 19th class has been cancelled for Grade 9, please make a note of it.

Wishing all grade K-8 students a very nice spring and summer!

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession was left unaided by grace. Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear Mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own "Fiat." May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love - the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

On this Mothers Day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you. In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. ~ Amen

CANDY BAR SALE

The St. Jeanne Jugan Youth Group is hosting a Candy Bar Sale after all Masses at Holy Family Church on May 18th and 19th. This fundraiser will help our Youth Group get one step closer to their Steubenville East trip in July 2019.

What is Steubenville East?

Each summer, The Franciscan University of Steubenville and Life Teen team up to put on conferences for Catholic Teens around the country. Our Youth Group will be attending the one at UMass Lowell from July 12th - 14th for a weekend filled with some of the best Catholic musicians and speakers in the nation. This is an opportunity for our youth to take the next step in their relationship with Christ. Our youth will participate in games and sports, have an opportunity to explore the campus, and experience life changing talks, concerts, and prayer experiences.

Help our Youth Group get to Steubenville East by buying a candy bar or two . . . or more!
