SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

THAT ALL MAY BE ONE

REFLECT

"So that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me." Does technology bring us together, or does it remind us of distance and differences and keep us apart? Most days, I'm not so sure. With the constant inundation of news from across the world, it can be easier to tune out the sufferings and the joys of people we'll never meet, in places we'll never visit. But is this the invitation of Jesus?

Over the centuries, our Church has become truly universal across the globe. There are Christians across nations and cultures, across lines of rich and poor. There are Christians who live behind white picket fences, and Christians dying in conflict zones. "That they may all be one," Jesus prays. One in what? Love. "That the love with which you loved me may be in them." This is easier said than done, of course. The world is far too vast for us to individually love every human being. I can hardly remember the names of half the regulars at my Sunday Mass! But that doesn't mean we can't try.

"I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word." Jesus had this religious popular explosion in mind. The mission and message of Christ was not meant to stop in the Apostle's generation or stay cordoned off in the geographic confines of Israel. Jesus' words at the Last Supper are a prayer, a plea to the Father for the spread and unity of the Church across time and space. This week, look up organizations supporting the persecuted Church and make a donation. Next week, visit a struggling parish within your own diocese. When you meet someone new at hospitality Sunday, invite them over for dinner to get to know them better.

Whether far off or close to home, let's allow Jesus' prayer to live in us, to be drawn together in love.

A NOTE FROM MRS. BETH CHASE

Dear St. Jeanne Jugan Parishioners,

Just a note of sincere thanks for all of the notes, cards, letters, texts and expressions of true love I received at the May 5th reception. It was a very touching afternoon. I am especially grateful to Claire Bronson, the Kitchen Angels, Fr. Golas, staff and all of the parishioners involved in hosting such a beautiful gathering for me. I was very humbled. Your thoughtfulness has meant the world to me, and all of you will remain in my heart always.

Love,

Beth Chase

FROM FR. GOLAS,

Baptism program at St. Jeanne Jugan Parish

Beginning June 1st, there will be one Baptismal preparation program for the Parish. The Baptism Prep class is for new parents or parents who have not attended in the last three years. It will be held on the second Tuesday of the month at 7 pm in classroom 2 and 3 of Holy Family Church. I ask parents who want to attend to contact either Administrative Assistant, Kacey at the Holy Family rectory or Sally at the St. Bernard rectory, to register. Deacon Richard, Deacon Vince, and I will be offering the classes alternating each month. Upon completion of the registration form at this class, parents can schedule a date for the baptism or schedule it later by calling Kacey or Sally. Baptisms can be scheduled on any Sunday of the month except on major religious feasts or holidays. This is another step that is being taken to further our Parish merger. It provides for a better usage of our staff and more options for our parishioners. The next class is Tuesday, June 11th at 7 pm in classroom 2 and 3 at Holy Family Church.

Religious Education program at St. Jeanne Jugan Parish

I am pleased to report that Mrs. Patricia Keck is the new coordinator of the Parish Religious Education program. Pat has been an active and involved parishioner and will be a welcome addition to our staff.

We will pray for God's blessing upon her in this new ministry of service to the Lord.

2019 ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Later in June, after years of study, 2 men are scheduled to be ordained to the priesthood. During the years of preparation for their vocation, they were supported by family and friends – and by everyone who made a gift to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. When you make a gift to the Appeal, you help meet the cost of priestly formation and education. Please support our seminarians by making a gift to the Appeal today.

All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/aaa-2019-last-years-appeal-impact/>.

No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.
