SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

DO WE TRUST GOD FOR TODAY?

REFLECT

Are you guilty of spiritual stockpiling? Spiritual stockpiling isn't an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas. It's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread."

This life isn't an immediate arrival. And as much as we might try to shore up possessions and pleasures, we know the journey is unpredictable. Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? After all, "What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish . . . how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" At the Last Supper, Jesus said he would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give.

Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you . . . he will give up to him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to provide for us, today and always.

2019 ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

The Archbishop's Annual Appeal provides help to those in need! Together, we can and do make a profound difference in the lives of many individuals and families, in a way that exceeds anything we could hope to achieve on our own. Join your fellow parishioners with a pledge or gift to this year's Archbishop's Annual Appeal.

Please visit the Appeal website at www.archdioceseofhartford.org and follow the link Sharing the Joy of the Gospel for Generations, to learn more and make your gift today. All pledges may be paid through December 31, 2019 towards this year's Appeal.

FROM FR. GOLAS

My recent trip to the University of Notre Dame to attend the Bishop John M. D'Arcy Program in Priestly Renewal sponsored by the McGrath Institute for Church Life was very beneficial and enjoyable. The presentations and discussions were helpful in providing insights into our pastoral care for the people of God. There were 14 priests from all parts of the country. We prayed, celebrated Mass and ate our meals together.

The week was a revitalizing experience for me. I know the conference helped me in my role of pastor of our parish. I really enjoyed the campus of the University of Notre Dame, South Bend and its storied history, especially its football program. I appreciated your prayers for my trip.

At St. Bernard Church, the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Marianne Lagel, at the request of the Kraucunas Cousins; the chapel candle burns in memory of Conrad Lesniak, Jr.

Contact the St. Bernard Church office for information about having the sanctuary or chapel candles burn for your intention.
