THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

REFLECT

Christ loves us first. So much of the Christian life is as simple as that. Today's Gospel is a prime example! "Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man . . . was seeking to see who Jesus was." We may have gotten used to the story of Zacchaeus, this short, seemingly innocent man who climbs a sycamore tree in his desperate desire to see Jesus. But this colorful, children's Bible illustration isn't what the gathering crowd would have seen. They would have seen the white collar criminal. Tax collectors were notorious for extortion. They were collaborators with the oppressive Roman overlords, overcharging for taxes and skimming a cut off the top. And how does Jesus respond to this man?

"Come down quickly," Jesus says, "for today I must stay at your house." If you had been there, would you have believed it? No doubt there were other disciples in the city or, at the very least, kind, generous, and just people. "Good" people. But those aren't the people Jesus chooses to share a meal with. Christ loves us first. He chooses Zacchaeus even before the man makes a public profession of his repentance.

"The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." We may not be tax collectors and extortionists — I hope not! — but we all have elements of our lives that are lost. We have wounds from childhood, unresolved anxieties or attachments, daily fears. No matter how "put together" we are, we all have our lost moments. Some days, it may feel like we can't see over the ways they crowd our inner life. Today's Gospel invites us to do something a little strange. Don't let your flaws, failures, or hang-ups prevent you from seeing Jesus. Take a deep breath. Go climb a tree, because Jesus is passing by. And he wants to stay in your heart today.

CEMETERY CLEAN-UP/FALL

Fall clean-up at St. Patrick Cemetery and St. Adalbert Cemetery will begin November 4th, weather permitting. We ask that all urns, containers and decorations be removed at this time and taken with you for disposal or left at the dumpster. It is very unsightly for discarded items to be left along the road. Artificial flowers are allowed after November 1st. Decorative items and mementos of any kind are not allowed and will be removed and discarded. Please also consider that anything left in the cemetery is not secure and is subject to theft or damage. Check the Cemetery Rules sign or please call the Cemetery Office at 860-745-2411 with any questions.

Thank you for your cooperation in keeping our cemetery a serene and Godly place of repose for our loved ones.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Spiritual direction is time and space when a person can explore and deepen their relationship with God accompanied by, and in confidential ongoing conversation with, another person. Spiritual direction helps us become aware of the ways in which we cooperate with, or in some cases, ignore God's work in our lives. Through spiritual direction a person hopes to grow in their prayer life and discern how to live out their call to holiness.

If you are interested in learning more about spiritual direction, please e-mail smaryann@feliciansisters.org or call 973-634-4705 and leave a message.

CATHOLIC CHURCH ANNULMENTS

Many Catholics have asked the following questions about the Church's position on divorce, annulments, and marriage:

"Can a divorced person receive Holy Communion?"

"Can a divorced person marry in the Catholic Church?"

"Why might a non-Catholic consider or need an annulment?"

"Does a divorced person need an annulment when the marriage was performed only by a Justice of the Peace?"

Often these questions and others have been met with misleading, misguided, and sometimes wrong responses. Perhaps you, a family member, or a friend needs sound, clear information. If so, please contact the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Hartford at 860-541-6491 or e-mail Tribunal@aohct.org.

You can also visit our website at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/metropolitan-marriage-tribunal/>.

Workshops and informational sessions about annulments are now being offered. The current schedule is as follows:

December 4th – St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish, Manchester 6:30 pm

December 5th – St. Peter Claver Parish, West Hartford 7 pm
