REFLECT

“Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods.” We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these “gods” because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with “who is God” and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised “more.” But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only “feels” true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God’s kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It’s a choice we all have to make.

Sharing the Gospel

After Jesus compared himself to manna, and said that he was sent from heaven, many of his followers turned away from him. They just could not accept what Jesus was saying. It was too hard for them to understand. We have something they did not have. We have the Holy Spirit to help us.

Sometimes what we learn might be hard for us to understand, too, but we never need to walk away. We can have faith in Jesus. We can ask him to help us.

Prayer

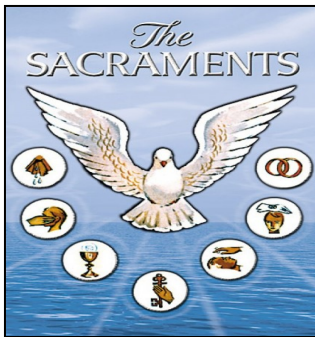

Dear God, give me the faith to trust Jesus always. Amen.

Mission for the Week

Have you ever learned something about God that was hard to understand? Talk about it with your family, and together pray for each other. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you learn what God wants you to.

Find your way through the maze to Jesus.

FROM FR. GOLAS

The recent earthquake that struck Southwestern Haiti has caused over 1,900 fatalities and 6,000 injured. The epicenter was close to Jeremie where the Haitian Health Foundation (HHF) is located. The Foundation has been serving the needs of the people of Haiti for nearly forty years. This is the foundation the parish has been supporting in building "Happy Houses". Some HHF facilities sustained some damage, but it has not affected their operations. The foundation is requesting our help to replenish important medical supplies and medicines that will soon be depleted. There will be a second collection for the Haitian Health Foundation on the weekend of September 4th and 5th.

Thank you for helping those in such need.

We are looking forward to this year's Parish Picnic on Sunday, August 29th after the 11:30 am Mass at Holy Family Church. Join us for an afternoon of fellowship, fun, and good food! Tickets are free and are available after Masses in the Halls at both churches, or by calling the Religious Education Office at 860-973-1717 ext. 118. Tickets are required in order to estimate food counts.

If you are interested in volunteering at the picnic, please contact Pat Keck in the Religious Education Office or by email at dre.reled@sjjenfield.org.

Set-Up for the picnic will happen on Saturday, August 28th at 8:30 am at Holy Family Church. If you are interested in helping, please join us that day. Many hands make light work and we welcome all hands!
