TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

HE MEETS US WHERE WE ARE

REFLECT

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.” Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospel demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical.

Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.

2021-2022 REGISTRATION

The Religious Education Program K-10 is currently enrolling for our 2021-2022 school year.

Please contact the office to register. We are putting our class rosters together and want to include all students before the end of summer.

We are also looking for volunteers to help the Religious Education office staff on Saturday mornings and Thursday evenings, serve as crossing guards, and hospitality for Religious Education Masses.

To volunteer or for further questions, please contact the Religious Education Office at 860-973-1717, extension 118.

Mrs. Pat Keck

Director of Religious Education/Faith Formation K-10

FROM FR. GOLAS

The recent earthquake that struck Southwestern Haiti has caused over 1,500 fatalities and 7,000 injured. The epicenter was close to Jeremie where the Haitian Health Foundation (HHF) is located. The Foundation has been serving the needs of the people of Haiti for nearly forty years. This is the foundation the parish has been supporting in building “Happy Houses”. Some HHF facilities sustained some damage, but it has not affected their operations.

The foundation is requesting our help to replenish important medical supplies and medicines that will soon be depleted. There will be a second collection for the Haitian Health Foundation on the weekend of September 4th and 5th. Envelopes will be available on all bulletin tables at both churches the weekend before and the weekend of the collection. You may write your name and offertory envelope number on the envelopes provided if you wish.

Thank you for helping those in such need.

To our dear St. Jeanne Jugan family,

Thank you for the outpouring of your love and support as we celebrate Genevieve. The Masses, prayers, cards, flowers, remembrances, and visits are heartwarming and very much appreciated.

Genevieve would want you to smile often, love openly, laugh a lot, and sparkle. Thank you for helping us heal.

With much love . . . the Neiman and Bronson families

St. Bernard School & Little Angels Pre-School

School begins on Tuesday, September 7th.

St. Jeanne Jugan Parishioners pray that all students, teachers, and parents have a successful, faith-filled school year.

GOSPEL

God smiles when you say kind words and do good things for others. Say please and thank you. Share your favorite candy bar. Open the door for someone. Sometimes you make mistakes. You might spit out an unkind word. You might hit someone. When you are in bed at night, tell God you are sorry. God will forgive you. Jesus died on the cross so that you can sleep on a pillow of forgiveness.

PRAYER

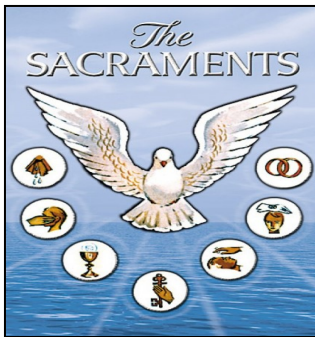

Lord, help me say good words to everyone I meet.

PUZZLE

Find the matching pair.

ANSWER: three and six
