TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY

REFLECT

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are “supposed” to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn’t take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life’s unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it’s really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life’s incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God’s story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, “be opened!” Be healed and allow your stories to change.

2021-2022 REGISTRATION

The Religious Education Program K-10 is currently enrolling for our 2021-2022 school year.

Please contact the office to register. We are putting our class rosters together and want to include all students before the end of summer.

We are also looking for volunteers to help the Religious Education office staff on Saturday mornings and Thursday evenings, serve as crossing guards, and hospitality for Religious Education Masses.

To volunteer or for further questions, please contact the Religious Education Office at 860-973-1717, extension 118.

Mrs. Pat Keck

Director of Religious Education/Faith Formation K-10

FROM FR. GOLAS

The recent earthquake that struck Southwestern Haiti has caused over 1,500 fatalities and 7,000 injured. The epicenter was close to Jeremie where the Haitian Health Foundation (HHF) is located. The Foundation has been serving the needs of the people of Haiti for nearly forty years. This is the foundation the parish has been supporting in building “Happy Houses”. Some HHF facilities sustained some damage, but it has not affected their operations.

The foundation is requesting our help to replenish important medical supplies and medicines that will soon be depleted. There will be a second collection for the Haitian Health Foundation this weekend, September 4th and 5th. Envelopes are available at the exits of both churches. You may write your name and offertory envelope number on the envelopes provided if you wish.

Thank you for helping those in such need.

St. Bernard School & Little Angels Pre-School

School begins on Tuesday, September 7th.

St. Jeanne Jugan Parishioners pray that all students, teachers, and parents have a successful, faith-filled school year.

GOSPEL

Imagine what it would be like to be deaf - unable to hear music, voices, or anything. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus did something amazing. Jesus healed a deaf man, so that for the first time he could hear and speak clearly.

If you were deaf and Jesus healed you, what would you listen to? What would you say?

PRAYER

Dear God, you are so amazing. Thank you for healing the deaf man. Help me to use my ears and my voice to praise you.

Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:15-16

Let your light shine here at the Parish of St. Jeanne Jugan!

RCIA classes will begin this Fall.

If you or someone you know is interested, please come and join us on a journey that you will never forget! Calling all unbaptized and baptized who need instruction to receive sacraments they may have not completed.
