HE SEEKS US OUT
in Love

UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” Take a moment to ponder these words from today’s Gospel. How does this image make you feel? For people to truly understand the significance of this message, something profound has to happen within. If we find ourselves reacting with a sense of dread or fear, we have to step back and ask why. Our answer will reveal a great deal about our relationship with God. It’s hard to fall in love with a God of whom we are afraid. God does not want us to be afraid. Nor does He want us to align our wills to His in order to avoid some kind of horrendous eternal consequence. That sounds like too much of a superficial power play on the part of God who continues to seek out His children in love.

In order for these words to carry any type of significant meaning for us, they have to resonate with and touch us on a deeper level. They have to be able to connect some dots and have meaning for us in order for this promise to change our lives. Sometimes we get preoccupied with the uncertainty of our deaths. Not knowing when or how we will eventually die can be unsettling. But, more so than needing an answer to the “when” of death, the “what” of death answer we provide has more significance. What happens to us when we die? Whether we die during the natural course of our lives or when Christ comes again, the experience is the same. If we believe that we are meant to live in union with God eternally and that death completes and does not diminish us, then it is worth our time and effort to wait in vigilant hope of the Lord’s coming in glory. Our journey back to God is something beautiful to be desired, not dreaded or feared.

Sadly, many folks believe that life is no more than a random occurrence without any purposeful direction or meaning. Death is simply death and nothing more. For them, the Second Coming of Christ and God’s eternal promise have no meaning. When we understand the truth about who we are, it changes things up. We then can see ourselves as works in progress who have the choice to either resist the inspirations of the Divine Artist or give into the wonderful creativity of His will. Life awaiting the fullness of Christ to come becomes an unfolding of Divine surprises and abundant joy. God is eternally merciful, forgiving, and welcoming. It is only when we directly reject this gift and turn our backs on Love itself that we have anything to fear.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Raymond Boisjolie, at the request of his Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren.

Contact the St. Bernard Church office for information about having the sanctuary candle burn for your intention.

St. Elizabeth of Hungary | Feast Day November 17

Although her life was short, St. Elizabeth of Hungary (1207-1231) is recognized for her love of the poor and suffering, and as patroness of Catholic charities and the Secular Franciscan Order. The daughter of the King of Hungary, she chose a life of penance instead of leisure, which made an impact on the "commoners" she served.

St. Elizabeth married Louis of Thuringia when she was 14. Deeply in love, they had three children. Despite their wealth, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and sick under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar.

After six years of marriage, her husband died in the Crusades, and St. Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family did not look kindly upon her and mistreated her before finally throwing her out of the palace. However, the return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne.

St. Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1228 where she cared for the poor in a hospital she founded in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. She died in 1231, but her great popularity resulted in her being named a saint only four years later.

THEME	SCRIPTURE
Jesus warns us to watch out for false leaders who will deceive us.	Mark 13:1-8

DISCUSSION

How many of you know how to play the game "Hana, Hana, Hana, Kuchi?" (Pause for responses.) It's a Japanese game that is a little bit like a combination of "Simon Says" and "Follow the Leader." Hana is the Japanese word for nose, and kuchi is the word for mouth. I will touch my nose three times as I say, "nose, nose, nose," but when I say "mouth," I will touch some other part of my body such as my ear, eye, or chin. You have to touch the part that I say -- not the part I touch. If you touch what I touch instead of what I say, you are out of the game. Let's try it once just for practice.

"Nose, nose, nose, mouth." (Demonstrate by touching your nose when you say "nose" and touching your ear when you say "mouth.") Uh-oh! I caught a few of you. Well, that was just for practice, so nobody is out of the game. Let's try it again. "Nose, nose, nose, ear." (Demonstrate by touching your nose when you say "nose" and touching your mouth when you say "ear.") I caught a few of you again, didn't I? (Continue to play the game as time permits; then continue with the lesson.)

When we were playing that game, I was trying to trick some of you into doing the wrong thing. It was only a game, and we were just having some fun, but there are times when people try to trick us into doing the wrong thing. Jesus warned about people like that.

One day, Jesus told his disciples to be careful not to let anyone deceive them. He warned that there would be many false teachers who would come teaching in His name and claiming to be Him. Jesus said that many would be fooled.

It was fun trying to trick you in the game of "Hana, Hana, Hana, Kuchi," but it isn't any fun to see people tricked into following false teachers instead of following Jesus. It is important to know what Jesus really teaches in the Bible so we won't be tricked.

Dear God, help us to read our Bibles each day and follow Jesus' teachings. Guard us from those pretending to be Jesus. In Jesus' name, amen.

St. Vincent de Paul Holiday Program at St. Bernard Church

The holiday's will soon be here, and our thoughts are turning to decorating, buying gifts and getting together with family and friends. However, as Jesus reminds us, we should always be helping out our brothers and sisters in need. This year, the St. Bernard Conference of St. Vincent de Paul will be accepting gift cards from parishioners who would like to help the less fortunate this holiday season.

Please consider purchasing a $25 gift card to Target, or Walmart, and dropping it off at the St. Bernard Rectory no later than 12:00PM on Friday, December 3rd. This will allow a family to be able to provide gifts for their children and other family members this Christmas. Grocery cards are also always welcome.

We truly appreciate your thoughtfulness and generosity and hope you have a merry and blessed Christmas!

BEWARE OF SCAMS

Some parishes, including our own, have noted an increase in scam attempts directed towards their parishioners. In these scams a call, text, or email is sent appearing to come from the priest and request that the individual send money to a certain location/account, or purchase gift cards whose serial numbers are then forwarded along to the "priest". Often, the phone number or email address used appears as if it might be coming from the priest, but it is in fact fake.

If you happen to receive emails, or text messages from Fr. Golas, requesting any of the above, please IGNORE!! Any offerings to the parish should be made only through the parish website, online giving page, parish office, mailed-in envelopes, or other official channels utilized by our parish.

If you are unsure if a request you receive is valid, please call the Parish rectory at (860) 962-4001.

Be alert, and please never give out your personal financial information.

2021 ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>.
