UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

“Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man,” these words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on any one of our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God’s Divine plan? Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired, confused, and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It’s easier to simply reap whatever benefits the world has to offer and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn’t require much effort and seems to get us through the day. Confronting our own infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God’s providence, how can we even remotely be considered a worthy vessel of God’s presence or credible voice for His message?

This is the irony of faith. God doesn’t seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own “god” and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of James Miczak, at the request of his Wife, Nancy.

Contact the St. Bernard Church office for information about having the sanctuary candle burn for your intention.

REST IN PEACE

St. Jeanne Jugan Parish mourns the loss of our parishioner

William Merrill

May you rest in the arms of the Lord, who formed you from the dust of the earth.

WINTER POLICY

The winter policy for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish is in effect for daily Masses Monday through Friday.

The policy states that when Enfield Public Schools cancel or delay school due to hazardous weather, the daily 7:30AM Mass at St. Bernard Church and the daily 9:00AM Mass at Holy Family Church will be cancelled that day as well; this includes the livestream for these Masses. This policy is in place for the safety of all.

The intentions for these Masses will be rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time. You may call the rectory of the Church where your Mass intention was scheduled to discuss a new date.

BEWARE OF SCAMS

Some parishes, including our own, have noted an increase in scam attempts directed towards their parishioners. In these scams a call, text, or email is sent appearing to come from the priest and request that the individual send money to a certain location/account, or purchase gift cards whose serial numbers are then forwarded along to the "priest", or "deacon".

If you happen to receive emails, or text messages from Fr. Golas, or any other parochial member, requesting any of the above, please IGNORE!! Any offerings to the parish should be made only through the parish website, online giving page, parish office, mailed-in envelopes, or other official channels utilized by our parish.

If you are unsure if a request you receive is valid, please call the Parish rectory at (860) 962-4001.

A Novena to Three American Saints for Life | Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton (Part 1 of 3)

*Saints Elizabeth Seton, Frances Cabrini and John Neumann are powerful witnesses to the Gospel of Life, each in their own time.
This novena suggests three days of prayer to each of the Saints for the promotion of Life in our country and our Church today.*

Day One

Saint Elizabeth Seton, you knew the beauty of all human life when you carried a child in your womb and when, as a young widow, a teacher, and founder of the Sisters of Charity, you sought to live the Gospel of Life.

Inspire us, intercede for us, and be with us. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

You know the sacrament of Holy Matrimony; teach us to support all families with faith and truth.

You know the love of a good spouse; intercede for all newly married couples.

You know the stirring of the child in your womb; intercede for every unborn child.

You know the miracle of giving birth; pray for mothers tempted by abortion.

Our Father ...

Hail Mary ...

Glory be to the Father ...

Day Two

Saint Elizabeth Seton, you knew the beauty of all human life when you carried a child in your womb and when, as a young widow, a teacher, and founder of the Sisters of Charity, you sought to live the Gospel of Life.

Inspire us, intercede for us, and be with us. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

You know the cry of a little child; inspire us to protect the littlest and most vulnerable.

You know the searching of the adolescent; open our eyes to the wonder of their lives.

You know the journey of the dying; be with us as we journey toward death with those whom we love.

You know the pain of the widow; inspire us to seek out those who are most in need.

Our Father ...

Hail Mary ...

Glory be to the Father ...

Day Three

Saint Elizabeth Seton, you knew the beauty of all human life when you carried a child in your womb and when, as a young widow, a teacher, and founder of the Sisters of Charity, you sought to live the Gospel of Life.

Inspire us, intercede for us, and be with us. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

You know the loneliness of the orphan; consecrate us to the protection of children.

You know the vocation of the teacher; inspire us to teach the Gospel of Life.

You know the vows of religious life; pray that we might be faithful to the Gospel of Life.

Our Father ...

Hail Mary ...

Glory be to the Father ...

Q&A REFLECTION

Question: Why don't Catholics recite the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer: The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it. Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

| Jesus called us to fish for people. | A rod and reel or some other fishing gear. | Luke 5:10b-11 |

DISCUSSION

Do you like to go fishing? If someone were to ask me that question, I guess I would have to say, "No." I like to catch fish, but I don't enjoy fishing unless I am catching fish. I have heard some people say that they don't care whether they catch any fish or not -- they just enjoy going fishing. Not me!

I remember one time when I went fishing with my son. He was about the age of some of you boys and girls -- about seven or eight, I guess. We got up early in the morning and went to the lake. We had been fishing for about five minutes when he turned to me and said, "Dad, when are we going to catch something?" After about thirty minutes, he gave up and went to play with some other children. I sat there and fished all day. I never did catch a fish. Now, that is not my idea of a good time!

As I think about that fishing trip, I am reminded of a story in the Bible about some men who had a fishing experience a lot like mine -- until Jesus came along.

One day Jesus was standing by the sea of Galilee. A large crowd of people started to gather around Him. He saw some fishermen nearby who were cleaning and mending their nets so He climbed into one of their boats. He asked one of the men whose name was Peter, to put the boat out a little way from the shore. Jesus sat in the boat teaching the people.

When He had finished teaching, Jesus said to Peter, "Put the boat further out into the deep water and let down your nets to catch some fish."

"We've been fishing all night long and haven't caught a thing, but if You say so, we will let down the nets one more time," Peter answered.

An amazing thing happened! When they started pulling the nets up, there were so many fish that the nets began to break. As they pulled the fish into the boat, there were so many fish that the boat was beginning to sink. When Peter and his fellow fishermen saw this, they were astonished and even a bit frightened.

Jesus said, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people."

The Bible tells us that they pulled their boats up onto the shore, left everything, and followed Jesus. From that day on, Peter and his friends fished for people and brought many into God's kingdom.

Jesus wants you and me to fish for people, too. If we will be faithful in telling people about Jesus and His love, we can trust Jesus to bring in the catch!

Dear Jesus, help us to be good fishers for people -- faithful to go, patiently waiting, and trusting You to bring in the catch. Amen.

The ABCs of Annulment

March 5 @ 10:00 am - 12:00 pm | Free

Sponsored by the Metropolitan Tribunal, Bloomfield

Fr. Jeffrey V. Romans, Pastor of Saint Bridget of Sweden Parish, 175 Main Street, Cheshire, Connecticut, in collaboration with Fr. George Mukuka, the Judicial Vicar of the Metropolitan Tribunal in Bloomfield, Connecticut, will host "The ABCs of Annulment" on Saturday, March 5th, 2022, from 10:00AM to 12:00PM, in the Parish Hall at the address above.

Updates of the process initiated by Pope Francis as well as those made in the Archdiocese of Hartford will be presented by Br. Larry Lussier CSC, and Jim Tottenham.

Follow-up Annulment Workshops to help participants write their applications will be held at the same address on Saturday, March 12th, and Saturday, March 19th from 10:00AM to 12:00PM. Br. Larry, Jim Tottenham, and other members of the Annulment Team will be present for the Workshops.

The "ABCs of Annulment" event is open to all at no cost. Participants will receive a folder with the required printed materials. No registration is required. For further information call Br. Larry at (475) 221-8464 or email him at brolarlus300@gmail.com.

A&P News

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH

Several years ago, the Finnigan family - a mother and daughter team from Suffield - asked people to drop off donations of winter coats and jackets to their front porch. Fast forward to this week and the duo delivered 5 huge bags of winter attire to the store. We can't thank them, or the people of Suffield, enough for their time and effort to help keep our community warm, especially during these sub zero temps.

God Bless the Finnigan family and all who participate in our stewardship!

Due to the pandemic, this month the crafters will have a modified "Drop-off and Bless" meeting Monday, February 7th from 1:00PM until 1:30PM in the Good Shepherd Meeting Room at St. Bernard Church.

EAST CATHOLIC
HIGH SCHOOL

Our enrollment process is in full swing!

Accepted students will start scheduling classes for the next school year on Tuesday, February 8th.

New students are still inquiring and filing applications. We are planning the entrance exam for them on Saturday, February 26th.

Families interested in our school always have a chance to schedule a private tour. We also will have a Parent Preview Night (mini-open house) on Tuesday, March 1st. The pre-registration for this event becomes available on our website in the near future.
