TO BELIEVE IN GOD,
WE HAVE TO ACT
LIKE GOD

UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this.

Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips."

If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Loretta Hauptman, at the request of Donald and Patricia Brierley.

Contact the St. Bernard Church office for information about having the sanctuary candle burn for your intention.

UPDATE | Mask Mandate

Mask requirements while attending Mass at both Holy Family Church and St. Bernard Church will end at the end of February.

❄️ WINTER POLICY ❄️

The winter policy for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish, which is in effect for daily Masses Monday through Friday, will end at the end of February.

The policy states that when Enfield Public Schools cancel or delay school due to hazardous weather, the daily 7:30AM Mass at St. Bernard Church and the daily 9:00AM Mass at Holy Family Church will be cancelled that day as well; this includes the livestream for these Masses. This policy is in place for the safety of all.

The intentions for these Masses will be rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time. You may call the rectory of the Church where your Mass intention was scheduled to discuss a new date.

Altar Society, Holy Family Teams:

We are back on schedule!

Schedule copies are located in the Sacristy for pick up. We are looking for new volunteers to help us out with light church cleaning or the cleansing and ironing of Altar linens.

If you are able to help, please call Elaine at (860) 749-9596.

Thank you for your consideration!

A Novena to Three American Saints for Life | Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini (Part 3 of 3)

*Saints Elizabeth Seton, John Neumann and Frances Cabrini are powerful witnesses to the Gospel of Life, each in their own time.
This novena suggests three days of prayer to each of the Saints for the promotion of Life in our country and our Church today.*

Day Seven

Saint Frances Cabrini, in every corner of the hemisphere you sought out those whom everyone
had forgotten.

Mother of immigrants, friend of orphans, protector
of the poor, intercede for us who seek to follow your
example. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mother of immigrants; give us a love for the lives of all who are rejected or forgotten.

Mother of the oppressed; inspire us to work for justice and the protection of all life.

Mother of the lost; inspire us to seek out all whose lives are forgotten.

Our Father ...

Hail Mary ...

Glory be to the Father ...

Day Eight

Saint Frances Cabrini, in every corner of the
hemisphere you sought out those whom everyone
had forgotten.

Mother of immigrants, friend of orphans, protector
of the poor, intercede for us who seek to follow your
example. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mother of the aged; be with those who are forgotten and alone.

Mother of the oppressed; pray for all who are condemned to die.

Mother of the sick; pray for those tempted to forget the infinite value of life.

Our Father ...

Hail Mary ...

Glory be to the Father ...

Day Nine

Saint Frances Cabrini, in every corner of the
hemisphere you sought out those whom everyone
had forgotten.

Mother of immigrants, friend of orphans, protector
of the poor, intercede for us who seek to follow your
example. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mother of those who care for the sick; inspire doctors to be apostles for life.

Mother of the homeless; teach us that all life comes from God and rests only in him.

Mother of little children; be with the child who is alone or afraid.

Our Father ...

Hail Mary ...

Glory be to the Father ...

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Love one another — even your enemies.	Items for a regal costume; an armchair.	Luke 6:27-38

DISCUSSION

(Put on the royal costume and sit in the arm chair.) What do I look like to you? (Pause for kids to identify that you are a king or a queen.) That's right. Pretend I'm the ruler. And what does a ruler do? (Pause for responses.)

A ruler makes rules. Only, I think I need some help with the rules. So let me ask you...

If you were ruler, what would your number one rule be, and why? (Have children take turns holding a royal object from your costume when they share. If time allows, invite them to take turns on the throne.)

Those were some interesting rules you all came up with. Today we're reading in the Bible about something Jesus, our King, said was important to do. Many people call this "The Golden Rule." (Invite kids to share if they know what it is.)

Jesus taught that loving one another, even people we don't get along with is really important. And one way we do that is to treat others how we want to be treated. So if we want others to welcome us when we're new to their school, then we do that for others. Or if we want others to be kind to us, we are kind to others. We'll learn more about that today.

Dear God, we want to treat others with love as Jesus taught us to do. Help us to do that well. In Jesus' name, Amen.

St. Mary's High School is excited to be offering transportation for the 2022-2023 school year!

As a Diocesan regional high school, we are lucky to have students from all over the Western MA and Northern CT area, and we recognize transportation is difficult for many families. We are hoping that by offering services for the coming school year, it will allow families who otherwise wouldn't have been able to consider St. Mary's the opportunity to offer their children a strong Catholic education based on a classical and Great Books curriculum.
