UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Jesus tells his disciples, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." The peace that Jesus gives is far different than the kind that comes from the absence of war, conflict, or affliction. The peace that God offers is found alongside suffering and hardship, not necessarily in their absence. St. Teresa of Avila offers us a bit of wisdom regarding peace: "May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us."

In order for us to experience the divine peace that Jesus offers, we have to allow God's presence to settle into our bones! It is only when this happens that we can be truly taught by the Holy Spirit to discern the true path to peace and find ourselves with untroubled hearts. The world and our lives are so unpredictable and changeable. If we look for a source of lasting and real peace only there, our search will never be satisfied. Something will always unsettle and disturb us. The Jewish disciples could really relate to what Jesus was saying about peace (shalom). They already knew that it was more a matter of achieving wholeness and wellbeing than anything else.

Wholeness and wellbeing are precisely what is uncovered when we begin to really see and know the height, depth, and breadth of God's presence and promise. The elegance of God's Divine life flows through our blood and the marrow in our bones. It is that close and deep. As we breathe in and exhale God's life, peace becomes what we know within and what is exhaled out. This remains in the midst of intense conflict, persecution, suffering, rejection, and even death.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Ann Kiczuk and Son, Jack, at the request of Chris and Ted Kiczuk.

Contact the St. Bernard Church office for information about having the sanctuary candle burn for your intention.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

NOTE #1 FROM FR. GOLAS

I wanted to inform you of a major project that will be taking place in Fr. Kerwan Hall this summer. Beginning June 1st, licensed contractors will be removing the asbestos floor tiles from the hall. It should take approximately one month to complete, as the planned work is to be done in three stages. The first stage is to remove the tiles from the hallway by the Religious Education office and Music room (classrooms 1&2 and 3), which requires that section of the building to be closed off from use. The entrance to that section will be closed during Stage 1. Stage 2 will encompass half of Fr. Kerwan Hall, including the kitchen and classrooms 4&5. Stage 3 will be the remainder of Fr. Kerwan Hall. This plan is designed to keep some access through the hall and to the restrooms. After Stage 1 is completed, including air tests verifying that the hall is safe to be used, this section will be open for use even without the final flooring installed. There will, however, be restricted access to some of the facilities with the new flooring being installed in July. I will keep you informed of the progress of the project, as well as, any changes to the patterns of access. I ask for your cooperation and patience as this project is being undertaken to enhance Fr. Kerwan Hall for all. Thank you!

NOTE #2 FROM FR. GOLAS

I want to inform you of the new Mass Schedule that will go into effect on July 1st, 2022.

This schedule is based on the view that the parish has two full time priests assigned to it. There are many changes, including a decreasing number of Masses that will be offered. Four of the churches will be used for Masses as the merger process begins, with Fr. Villa saying the Masses at St. Martha Church.

I hope we keep in sight the good of the parish as a whole and the needs of the Catholic community of Enfield. Fr. Mathew and I will do our best to serve the pastoral needs of our parishioners. Through this change, we will need your cooperation and understanding. Working together with God's help, we can be a spirit and faith-filled community - like the ones we have been hearing about in our readings from Acts during this Easter season.

May God Bless!

THEME

Show your love by your actions.

OBJECT

SCRIPTURE

John 14:23

DISCUSSION

Can anyone guess who this is in this picture? It is my mother. My mother is in heaven with Jesus now, but I still think of her often. I loved my mother very much and I know that she liked to hear me say, "Mom, I love you!" Do you think your mother likes to hear you tell her that you love her? Of course she does! But do you know what your mother likes even more? She likes for you to show her that you love her.

How can you show your mother that you love her? Well, I made up a list of what I think might be the top ten ways to show your mother that you love her.

- 10. Make your bed | 09. Pick up your clothes | 08. Keep your room clean
- 07. Take out the trash | 06. Help her fix dinner | 05. Set the table
- 04. Help with the dishes | 03. Don't fuss with your brothers or sisters
- 02. Give her a gift that you made yourself
- 01. Obey her when she tells you to do something

So remember, your mom likes to hear you say, "I love you," but she likes it even more when you show her that you love her.

Do you love Jesus? I'm sure you do. Do you think Jesus likes to hear you say, "I love you?" I know He does. But He likes it even better when you show Him that you love Him. How do you do that? He told us how. He said, "If anyone loves Me, he will obey My teachings." The Bible is full of things that Jesus taught us. You show Him that you love Him by obeying His teaching.

When you leave here today, don't forget to tell your mom that you love her, but more important, show her that you love her. As we worship today, tell Jesus that you love Him, but more important, remember to show Him that you love Him by doing the things that He taught us.

Dear Lord, we have come to Your house today to say, "I love You." Help us to go out of here today and show You that we love You by obeying Your teachings. Amen.

Next week our special collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign.

This campaign engages and builds Catholic communities in the United States and developing countries using the internet, television, radio, and print media. Half of the money collected remains here in the Archdiocese of Hartford to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message!
