UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells His disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks His disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Paul J. Hyde, at the request of Chris and Ted Kiczuk.

At St. Raymond of Penafort the special intention candle burns in memory of Ralph & Joan Jordan, at the request of Mae Sullivan.

NOTES FROM FR. GOLAS

**CONSTRUCTION AT HOLY FAMILY CHURCH**

I wanted to inform you of a major project that is taking place in Fr. Kerwan Hall this summer. As of June 1st, licensed contractors started removing the asbestos floor tiles from the hall. It should take approximately one month to complete, as the planned work is to be done in three stages. The first stage is to remove the tiles from the hallway by the Religious Education office and Music room (classrooms 1&2 and 3), which requires that section of the building to be closed off from use. The entrance to that section will be closed during Stage 1. Stage 2 will encompass half of Fr. Kerwan Hall, including the kitchen and classrooms 4&5. Stage 3 will be the remainder of Fr. Kerwan Hall. This plan is designed to keep some access through the hall and to the restrooms. After Stage 1 is completed, including air tests verifying that the hall is safe to be used, this section will be open for use even without the final flooring installed. There will, however, be restricted access to some of the facilities with the new flooring being installed in July. I will keep you informed of the progress of the project, as well as, any changes to the patterns of access. I ask for your cooperation and patience as this project is being undertaken to enhance Fr. Kerwan Hall for all. Thank you!

**NEW PAROCHIAL VICAR**

I received notice from Archbishop Blair that Fr. Joseph MacNeill has been assigned as Parochial Vicar at St. Jeanne Jugan Parish, St. Martha Parish and St. Raymond of Penafort Parish in Enfield from June 27, 2022 through September 18, 2022.

Fr. MacNeill was ordained in 2021 at the Cathedral of St. Joseph. Fr. Mathew and I appreciate the assistance of another priest at this time. We look welcome Fr. MacNeill to our parish communities that are in the process of being merged.

A NOTE FROM FR. BRUNO

To All Parishioners of St. Raymond of Penafort Parish,

It has been a unique blessing and privilege to have been stationed here on two different occasions to serve you during my fifty-four years as a Priest. I shall carry you close to my heart as we all continue our earthly pilgrimage until we meet again in the presence of the Lord Jesus in the glory of eternal happiness. Let us continue in prayer for each other until that wonderful day. May God bless you "always and all ways".

 Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call the St. Raymond of Penafort Prayer Line or the St. Martha Prayer Line? If you have a request for the St. Martha Prayer line, please call the parish office at (860) 745-5616 during office hours.

A LETTER FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD
134 FARMINGTON AVENUE
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT
06105-3784

OFFICE OF
THE ARCHBISHOP

June 25, 2022

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

For a very long time people of upright conscience and good will have worked and prayed for an end to the scourge of abortion on demand in our country and around the world. From ancient times our forebears in the faith rejected abortion as a moral evil, and over the last half-century people of a correctly formed and upright conscience have striven to undo the Roe v. Wade decision which has resulted in the death of well over 60 million unborn babies in our country alone.

Now that Roe v. Wade has finally been set aside, it is for the people of the United States, and not the Supreme Court, to decide the protections that can and should be afforded to the unborn. We need to make every effort to ensure that this happens, and that life is respected from conception until natural death. This is all the more urgent, living as we do in a "culture of death" fueled by abortion and euthanasia, where suicide among young people, lethal violence by guns or other means, and disrespect and intolerance are increasing.

Our Catholic Church has a monumental commitment to fostering the spiritual, moral and material wellbeing of our nation and our world, beginning in our own families, communities and parishes. Outreach and care for pregnant women in difficult and trying circumstances has been an integral part of Catholic pro-life efforts, and we need to commit ourselves all the more to the Respect Life Ministry of our Archdiocese (prolifeministry.org) and to our parish pro-life groups.

I want to thank all the Faithful of the Archdiocese of Hartford who have persevered in their pro-life commitment through thick and thin and have never given up hope that one day the evil of abortion on demand would no longer be the untouchable law of the land.

The Supreme Court published its decision on June 24, the Solemnity this year of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. On the cross, contrary to all appearances, life conquered death. And as the great champion of life, Pope St. John Paul the Great, once wrote, "No absolution offered by beguiling doctrines, even in the areas of philosophy and theology, can make a person truly happy: only the Cross and the glory of the Risen Christ can grant peace to one's conscience and salvation to one's life" (Veritatis Splendor, n. 120).

I join you in praying that truth and love may prevail in our country and in our world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Leonard P. Blair
Archbishop of Hartford

WARMING CENTER SUMMER NEEDS

Enfield's Safe Harbor Warming Center is a year-round operation that provides needed outreach and supplies to our homeless neighbors. We are in need of summer clothing items and supplies (T-shirts and shorts for men and women, new men's (M-L-XL) and women's underwear (M-L), gently used sneakers in men's and women's sizes, baseball caps and hats), personal care items (washcloths, baby wipes, sunscreen, insect repellent, deodorant, shaving razors, baby powder), camping supplies, and packaged snacks such as individual chips, cookies, water, sodas, powdered iced tea mix).

Donated items can be dropped off in Weaver Hall at St. Patrick Church each Thursday from 6:30PM to 8:00PM, or at another time by contacting Monica Wright at wright.eshwc@gmail.com.

As always, monetary donations are welcome and can be mailed to Enfield People for People, Inc. at PO Box 165, Enfield, CT 06083, online at <https://enfieldsafeharbor.org>, or dropped into our weekly offertory collection in an envelope clearly marked for "Warming Center." Many thanks for your continued support of our mission.

La Comunidad Fuerza de Dios los invita todos los miércoles de 7:00 pm a 9:00 pm en el Salóm Saint Francis de nuestra parroquia St. Martha, a una reunion mas de alabanza, oracion y compartir la Palabra de Dios.

Dios espera por ti para que lo conozcas como El quiere ser conocido.
