UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Marianne So Gutierrez at the request of Loida Hilliard.

For more information about having the sanctuary candle burn for your intention at St. Bernard Church, please reach out to Sally at sbadmin@sjjenfield.org; for the special intention candle at St. Raymond of Penafort Parish, please reach out to Nancy at stpatrickcemetery@sjjenfield.org.

The Giving Store

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH

Store open for donations: Friday, July 29th @ 11:00AM.

Many people are spending their summer traveling to various locations using hotels for overnight stays. Most commonly, these facilities will have small containers of shampoo, conditioner, soap etc. for personal use. What we usually do is take them home and they stay in a drawer for later use. These little containers are sought after by patrons of our store. So if you have any of these items, they would be very much appreciated! We want to thank you for your support of The Giving Store. You are making life a little easier for many families and individuals in old Thompsonville and beyond.

May God's Blessings be with you, your family and friends!

La Comunidad Fuerza de Dios los invita todos los Lunes de 7:00 pm a 9:00 pm en el Salóm Saint Francis de nuestra parroquia St. Martha, a una reunion mas de alabanza, oracion y compartir la Palabra de Dios.

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
God answers prayers.	"Knock, Knock" jokes.	Luke 11:1-13

DISCUSSION

I'm sure you've heard of a "Knock, Knock" joke. I have some to tell you today. Ready?

Knock, Knock. (Kids respond, "Who's there?") Boo. (Kids respond, "Boo who?") Why are you crying? (Share a couple more "Knock, Knock" jokes, invite kids to share some and/or you can use the following.)

- Knock, Knock. (Who's there?) Tank. (Tank who?) You're welcome!
- Knock, Knock. (Who's there?) Canoe. (Canoe who?) Canoe come out and play?
- Knock, Knock. (Who's there?) Orange. (Orange Who?) Orange you glad this is my last Knock, Knock joke?

The Bible tells us about a time Jesus was talking about knock, knock, knocking. (Invite kids to make a knock, knock motion with their fists.)

One day, Jesus was teaching His friends, the disciples, how to pray. He said, "Let's say you went to a friend's house late at night..." (Have kids make a knock, knock motion as if knocking on a friend's door.) "You said to your friend, 'I need to borrow some bread. I have a friend visiting and I have nothing to feed him.' "

"What if the friend answers, 'I can't help you right now. It's late and we're already in bed.' But what if you keep knocking on the door? Jesus said, "If you knock so long that you wake everyone in the neighborhood, your friend will get up and give you some bread."

Jesus used this story to tell His friends and us to knock on God's door by asking for what you need. He says, "Everyone who asks will get what he asks for. Everyone who looks will find what he is looking for. Everyone who knocks will have the door opened to him."

Jesus said prayer is a way to ask, seek, and knock. Jesus even taught His disciples a way to pray. We call this prayer the Lord's Prayer. Let's pray it now. (Lead kids through the Lord's Prayer, encouraging them to say it with you. If time allows, help children learn it by saying it more than once.)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

"Our Father ..."

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific or as general as you wish.
