UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

St. Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do." Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way. We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another's efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes. How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation?

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Shirley Brierley, at the request of Donald and Patricia Brierley.

For more information about having the sanctuary candle burn for your intention at St. Bernard Church, please reach out to Sally at sbadmin@sijenfield.org; for the special intention candle at St. Raymond of Penafort Parish, please reach out to Nancy at stpatrickcemetery@sijenfield.org.

The Giving Store

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH

Store open for donations: Friday, August 12th @ 11:00AM.

It doesn't seem possible, but summer is slowly slipping away and we will soon be getting ready to send our children off to school.

We all remember those first days of school and were so excited to have our parents take us shopping for our first day of school outfit. As you prepare for this event; by sorting through their clothing, please consider donating those items that they have outgrown. We all know how expensive clothing is, which makes it especially hard for those on a fixed income. Gently used clothing from pre-school on up will be greatly appreciated!

Just a reminder, we cannot accept any used undergarments, or socks - but pajamas and shoes are accepted. We thank you in advance for your time and thoughtful participation in our Stewardship.

Blessings to you and may God keep you and yours safe!

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Storing up treasures in heaven.	A piggy bank; play money; pen; coins.	Luke 12:32-40

DISCUSSION

(Show the piggy bank.) Do you have a piggy bank at home? How often do you put money in it? (Pause for responses.)

Some people, at the end of each day, put all of the change from their pockets into a piggy bank. It may not be a lot of money, but when you add to it every day, it is amazing how quickly it builds up.

Whether we use a piggy bank or a savings account at the bank, it is a good idea to have a plan to save money for unexpected emergencies or when we want to do something special. But we have to be careful that saving money doesn't become the most important thing in our life. Why do you think I say that?

In the Bible, Jesus warned His friends and the people who followed Him about making money the most important thing to them. (Fan out a stack of play money.)

He said, "Don't worry too much about building up treasures on earth." He meant, don't worry too much about money and things but instead, spend your time building up treasures in heaven. So, instead of putting money in this piggy bank, let's store up treasures in heaven by putting in things we think would be treasures in heaven. (Luke 12:33)

What might be treasures in heaven? (Invite kids to write each idea they name on play money, and put it into the piggy bank. You might guide them to the following list, if needed.) Examples: Give money to the poor, visiting the sick, helping to feed the hungry, being cheerful and thoughtful to someone who is sad, praying for one another, working in a shelter for the homeless, being a friend to someone who is lonely, forgiving someone who has hurt you, and saying you're sorry when you hurt someone.

All the things we talked about can be "treasures in heaven." They may not seem like much, but if we do something for someone each and every day, it is amazing how quickly they add up.

God, we may never have much money or very many things, but help us to be faithful each day in building up treasures in heaven. In Jesus' name, Amen.
