UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

"You cannot serve both God and mammon." Merriam-Webster defines mammon as material wealth or possessions, especially having a debasing influence. While God does not take issue with our need to use money for the business of our lives, there can be a problem with the attitudes we bring to it. We can easily become so preoccupied and obsessed with money that it becomes the real "god" we worship. Do we serve mammon instead of God? In their book, Wealth, Riches and Money, Craig Hill and Earl Pitts outline symptoms of mammon's influence in our lives. Some of these are worry and anxiety over money, money mismanagement, fear over "never having enough," an "I can't afford it" mentality, impulse buying, stinginess, greed, debt, and discontent.

Many of the things on that list can consume us to the point that we are distracted from what we really need to be doing. Many people spend an inordinate amount of time worrying about money and it becomes the source of their worst fears. If we are honest with ourselves, we need to admit that we place far more emphasis on our material securities than we ought. In fact, we have actually convinced ourselves that we cannot live without it. Are we that certain about the presence of God? Many of the world's problems, especially those involving inequity and injustice, result from conflicts about money. Many equate money with happiness. Those successful in accumulating large amounts of it quickly realize just how wrong they are.

"Your ultimate allegiance is not to the government, not to the state, not to nation, not to any man-made institution. The Christian owes his ultimate allegiance to God, and if any earthly institution conflicts with God's will it is your Christian duty to take a stand against it. You must never allow the transitory evanescent demands of man-made institutions to take precedence over the eternal demands of the Almighty God (Martin Luther King, Jr.)." This is the point Jesus is trying to make. Unfortunately, when we look around our man-made kingdoms are far more prevalent than God's kingdom. When we start seeing greater evidence of justice, equity, dignity, respect, opportunity, gentleness, holiness, solidarity, honesty, simplicity, care for creation, and a decrease in ambition, then we will know that God's kingdom is being served. We will be doing what we are supposed to do.

At St. Bernard Church the Sanctuary candle burns in memory of Harold and Octavia Relihan, at the request of their daughter, Barbara O'Connell.

At St. Martha Church the Sanctuary lamp burns for Special Intentions.

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Honesty with God and with one another.	A picture of Theodore Roosevelt.	Luke 16:10

DISCUSSION

Have you ever heard of Theodore Roosevelt? He was the 26th president of the United States. Before becoming president, he was a soldier, an author, served as police commissioner of New York City, and was even a cowboy. As a young man, he staked a claim in North Dakota and started his own ranch.

During his time as a rancher, Roosevelt and one of his cowhands lassoed a stray calf. They built a fire and prepared to brand the stray. The part of the range they were on belonged to Gregor Lang, one of Roosevelt's neighbors. According to the cattlemen's rules at that time, a stray belonged to the person on whose land it was found. As his cowboy applied the brand, Roosevelt said, "Wait, it should be Gregor Lang's brand." "That's all right, boss," said the cowboy. "But you're putting my brand on it," Roosevelt said. "That's right," said the man. "Drop that iron," Roosevelt demanded, "and get back to the ranch, pack your belongings, and get out. I don't need you anymore. A man who will steal for me will also steal from me." This story shows us that Theodore Roosevelt had a good understanding of the meaning of honesty.

Jesus told His disciples a story to teach them about honesty. He told them about a rich man who had a manager, and the manager was using the man's money for himself. When the rich man discovered that the manager was wasting his money, he called him in and fired him. After telling this story, Jesus said to His disciples, "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much."

If you and I make sure that we are honest in the small things, then we can be sure that we will be honest in the big things. If people know that they can trust us in small things, they will know that they can trust us in the big things too.

Dear Father, help us to remember what Jesus taught about honesty and help us to be honest in every situation, big or small. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

ROSARY CONGRESS

The Annual Archdiocese of Hartford Traveling Rosary Congress will be held October 1-7, 2022. A Traveling Rosary Congress is seven days of around-the-clock Eucharistic Adoration and Hourly Rosary in response to Our Lady of Fatima's call to conversion, consecration and prayer, with each 24-hour period hosted at a different parish in the archdiocese. It is offered in a spirit of reparation to restore the sanctity of life, to heal families, establish peace in our cities, nation, and world, and to console the hearts of Jesus and Mary.

St. Jeanne Jugan Parish will host at St. Martha Church on Tuesday, October 4th with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at 6:00 pm through Wednesday, October 5th concluding with the 7:00PM Traditional Latin Mass. During this 24-hour period, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be in St. Martha Church, with the Rosary and the Chaplet of Mercy prayed aloud at the start of each hour, followed by silent prayer for the remainder of the hour. Booklets will be provided with the prayers.

Please consider participating in this special event as we pray in reparation for our families, our archdiocese, and our country, by volunteering to cover one of the hours of Adoration during the day or the night hours. Bring your family, a friend, or if you are part of a parish group, consider volunteering as a group for an hour. If you are interested in participating, please call (860) 216-7471 or sign-up at the entrance to St. Martha Church.

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line or the St. Martha Church Prayer Line? The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific or as general as you wish. The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line." If you have a request for the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line, please call (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM. If you have a request for the St. Martha Church Prayer line, please call the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours.

A NOTE FROM FR. GOLAS

The priests of the Archdiocese of Hartford are required to attend the Annual Convocation of Priests by Archbishop Blair in Mystic, CT. The convocation will begin at Noon on Monday, October 3rd and conclude at Noon on Wednesday, October 5th. Parishes will be unable to grant funeral requests during the three days priests are away. The rectory offices at all Churches will be open during the three days the priests are away. During this time, the regularly scheduled Daily Masses will be cancelled. There is always something interesting that we learn at these gatherings.
