UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Brendan wouldn't stop. He continued nagging his mom to let him have a little more time with his phone. He knew the rules but wanted to finish a game and text a few more friends. He begged, had a temper tantrum, pleaded, screamed, pouted, and used every means he could think of to get Mom to change her mind. Mom had a busy day and was tired. At first, she held her ground. Then, her son's persistence got the best of her, and she caved. "Brendan, you can have 30 more minutes and no more!" she retorted. Brendan's determination paid off. He won.

Is this how it works with God too? If we want something enough and feel it is our due, does our persistence allow us to eventually get our way? Judging God by human standards, it would seem so. But is this the way God works? It gets a bit confusing when Jesus tells His disciples to "pray always without becoming weary" and then further tells them how God will "secure the rights of His chosen ones who call out to Him day and night." If we catch God at the right time, when He's having a weak moment, then our tenacity ought to pay off. What we want, we will get. Really? Sadly, the way many approach prayer suggests that this is precisely how it goes.

Good parents set boundaries and offer proper discipline. They learn the art of being steadfast when presented with determined minds and wills. They know what is best and, at times, have to say "no." God is always there with His full attention and unconditional love showering itself upon us. God also knows what is best. And, as with any good parent, the one constant that is always available and never withheld is love. We can be as persistent and determined as we want if what we are seeking is God's love. We are never a bother and requests for God's love are never denied. This is the prayer of the heart. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. God is never bothered by this prayer. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life freely flows.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Sean Michael Donahue, on the anniversary of his birthday, at the request of his Family.

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

At the start of a movie, there is usually a preview of upcoming movies. I write to give you a preview of the upcoming merger of the parishes of St. Raymond, St. Martha, and St. Jeanne Jugan of Enfield. Archbishop Blair announced this in his letter of April 22, 2022. The Archdiocese is implementing the "municipal model" to bring the three parishes into one parish with multiple churches. The decree will be announced publicly on the weekend of October 29th/30th by various means. The effect of the decree will mean one parish in church and civil law. Church law (canon law) sees a parish as a community of Catholics of a certain area and the church as a place for worship. In the past, Church and parish were considered the same. On November 22, 2022, the merger decree will go into effect. St. Jeanne Jugan Parish will be the Catholic parish of Enfield with five churches, although one church is not in use.

The merger will take time to fully implement. As decisions are made concerning the merger, timely communication will help to bring us together as a parish. Things will continue as they are for now. The parish councils will continue to function for now until new by-laws can be drafted to address the new parish situation. For now, the existing St. Jeanne Jugan parish will need to include representation from the other two churches. I will be establishing a new finance council with representatives from all of the churches. I hope and pray we will continue to be united in our faith and love for the Lord. On behalf of Fr. Mathew, Fr. Villa, Deacon Vince Motto, Deacon Paul Robert, and Deacon Michael Torres, I want to thank you for your prayerful and kind support. In these challenging times, we trust the Lord is with us and guiding us to a stronger and brighter future.

P.S. I will be away from the parish from October 20-24 visiting my brother in Texas. Fr. Edward Przygocki, M.S.A., a classmate, will be offering the Masses at Holy Family and St. Bernard Churches that weekend.

It's time again for the October Count

Since 1969, the Archdiocese of Hartford has required all parishes to submit a count of how many people attend Mass and receive Holy Communion on weekends during the month of October. The figures provide the Archdiocese with a measure of the spiritual vitality of a Parish and, in some cases, are used in a restructuring process. So do not be surprised on October 29th and 30th to see an usher stopping at each pew with a counter in hand during Mass.

PRAYER LINES

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH & ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line or the St. Martha Church Prayer Line? The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific or as general as you wish. The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line." If you have a request for the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line, please call (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM. If you have a request for the St. Martha Church Prayer line, please call the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours.
