GOD KNOWS NO FAVORITES

UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

There is a thing called "false piety." It is when we wear a religious disguise of devotion, attend to our obligations, and outwardly abide by rules while being inwardly unkind, uncharitable, and exclusive. Wearing the right clothes, saying the proper prayers, being in sacred places, and reading devotional books, those exhibiting false piety craftily try to control others using the pretense of love. The Pharisees, consistently criticized by Jesus, are prime examples. Thinking they are superior to others, they foolishly believe they are better positioned with God and more worthy of God's attention. Forming an exclusive "club," they divide things between "mine" and "yours" and "us" and "them." They quickly criticize and point out flaws and errors in rituals and thinking. Conformity becomes the first commandment and control is the game's name.

The requirements for "club membership" are clear: do what we do, think what we think, and believe what we believe. Attempting to control others using the lure of "status" or "salvation," they seduce others into thinking that conformity is the only way to holiness. Clinging to "my beliefs," "my parish," "my way of thinking," they fail to see the more significant relationship with God that is veiled in all of these superficial rules and practices. Shallow, hollow, and empty vessels, they gloss over the more important virtues of justice, mercy, faithfulness, and forgiveness. Sparkling clean on the outside, but dirty on the inside. Spiritual arrogance is a grave sin. It alienates and hurts the little ones, those considered "least" in the kingdom.

God knows no favorites. Everyone belongs regardless of whether you are an official, bona fide member. Sometimes membership may be a detriment to actually living the Gospel if you're joining the team for the wrong reasons. The genuinely humble ones may not appear to be overly "pious." They may not know all of the proper prayers or abide by all of the correct rituals, but they know that they are broken and need mercy. There is no shame in being broken. In fact, many things need to be broken in order to be what they truly are! There is a reason Jesus told us to pray in private. It's only between you and God. It is nobody else's business.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of Shirley Brierley, at the request of Donald and Patricia Brierley .

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

At the start of a movie, there is usually a preview of upcoming movies. I write to give you a preview of the upcoming merger of the parishes of St. Raymond, St. Martha, and St. Jeanne Jugan of Enfield. Archbishop Blair announced this in his letter of April 22, 2022. The Archdiocese is implementing the "municipal model" to bring the three parishes into one parish with multiple churches. The decree will be announced publicly on the weekend of October 29th/30th by various means. The effect of the decree will mean one parish in church and civil law. Church law (canon law) sees a parish as a community of Catholics of a certain area and the church as a place for worship. In the past, Church and parish were considered the same. On November 22, 2022, the merger decree will go into effect. St. Jeanne Jugan Parish will be the Catholic parish of Enfield with five churches, although one church is not in use.

The merger will take time to fully implement. As decisions are made concerning the merger, timely communication will help to bring us together as a parish. Things will continue as they are for now. The parish councils will continue to function for now until new by-laws can be drafted to address the new parish situation. For now, the existing St. Jeanne Jugan parish will need to include representation from the other two churches. I will be establishing a new finance council with representatives from all of the churches. I hope and pray we will continue to be united in our faith and love for the Lord. On behalf of Fr. Mathew, Fr. Villa, Deacon Vince Motto, Deacon Paul Robert, and Deacon Michael Torres, I want to thank you for your prayerful and kind support. In these challenging times, we trust the Lord is with us and guiding us to a stronger and brighter future.

P.S. I will be away from the parish from October 20-24 visiting my brother in Texas. Fr. Edward Przygocki, M.S.A., a classmate, will be offering the Masses at Holy Family and St. Bernard Churches that weekend.

It's time again for the October Count

Since 1969, the Archdiocese of Hartford has required all parishes to submit a count of how many people attend Mass and receive Holy Communion on weekends during the month of October. The figures provide the Archdiocese with a measure of the spiritual vitality of a Parish and, in some cases, are used in a restructuring process. So do not be surprised on October 29th and 30th to see an usher stopping at each pew with a counter in hand during Mass.

PRAYER LINES

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH & ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line or the St. Martha Church Prayer Line? The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific or as general as you wish. The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line." If you have a request for the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line, please call (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM. If you have a request for the St. Martha Church Prayer line, please call the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours.
