UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

We hide ourselves and our secrets from God because we are afraid. Even Mary can seem too perfect to approach. The shepherds find the strength to speak to Mary and Joseph at the moment they see the child in the manger. They open their hearts and share what they've experienced. Saint Luke writes of the shepherds, "When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child."

When I was a college student, I visited Rome. Beggars often approached and said, "Mangia? Mangia?" I didn't speak Italian and thought, "Why are they speaking about the Christmas nativity scene?" My friend said, "Mangia means eat. They're hungry." That's when I realized more deeply than ever before that Mary puts her baby in a place designed for hungry animals to eat.

See that baby in the manger in your heart. Imagine Mary kneeling nearby looking at you with love. She doesn't cling to God for herself. In that cave, from the beginning, she quietly offers her son to hungry souls. The manger means vulnerable self-offering love. That's the sign. This week that same manger opens our hearts to tell Mary about our lives, too.

This policy is in place for the safety of all.

The intentions for these Masses will be rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time. You may call the rectory of the Church where your Mass intention was scheduled to discuss a new date.

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Telling the Christmas story to others.	A large teddy bear or other stuffed animal.	Luke 2:8-20

DISCUSSION

Even today, we are still supposed to tell others about Jesus. Did you know some kids don't even know that Christmas is Jesus birthday and that's why we celebrate? What a great way to tell others about Jesus. Just ask them why we celebrate Christmas. If they don't know it Jesus birthday, tell them! You can even tell them the Christmas story so they can know about Jesus too!

2-5: Have the kids pair up. Have one child pretend they don't know the Christmas story and that it is Jesus' birthday. Have the other child tell them about Jesus and the Christmas story. Then have them trade roles and do it again.

K-1: Have a large teddy bear or other stuffed animal. Tell the kids that the teddy bear didn't know that Christmas was Jesus' birthday and doesn't know the Christmas story. Have the kids tell the teddy bear the Christmas story and that Christmas is Jesus' birthday.

K-5: Tell the kids that they can tell the Christmas story and that Christmas is Jesus' birthday to anyone. Have them think of people they could tell.

K-5: Pray that the kids will have opportunities to tell others about Jesus, the Christmas story, and that Christmas is Jesus' birthday. Pray the God's Holy Spirit will give them the courage and boldness to tell others about Him.

K-5: Have the children write down the names of the children they would like to tell about Jesus. Have them put it in a place they will see throughout the week. Encourage the kids to pray for those on their list whenever they look at it over the next week.

PRAYER LINES

ST. RAYMOND OF PENAFORT PARISH & ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line or the St. Martha Church Prayer Line?

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

If you have a request for the St. Raymond of Penafort Parish Prayer Line, please call (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM. If you have a request for the St. Martha Church Prayer line, please call the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours.

Members from all four churches attended Mass together, concelebrated by Father Golas, enjoyed a buffet dinner, marveled at the beautiful outdoor light display, attended a Christmas concert, and viewed Nativity sets from around the world.
