UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip." Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics .

— Father John Muir

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

THEME	OBJECT	SCRIPTURE
Jesus cleans the temple.	Broom, paper towels, window cleaner and mop.	John 2:13-22

DISCUSSION

Mops, brooms, and window cleaner...what do we use these things for? (Pause.) We use them when we clean houses. Do you ever help your parents clean your house? (Pause.)

Let's see how good you are at pretending to clean. When I hold up the broom, stand up and pretend to be sweeping the floor. (Demonstrate the motion.) When I hold up the paper towels and window spray, pretend to spray and scrub a window. (Demonstrate the motion.) When I hold up the mop, stay seated and pretend to use a mop in circles to clean the floor. (Demonstrate the motion.)

Hold up each item several times, sometimes repeating the same item twice in a row. Play until kids get tired.

How do you know it's time to clean house? Here are some signs that will let you know:

- It's time to clean house when your feet stick to the floor when you walk through the kitchen.
- It's time to clean house when your mother can't find you when she comes into your room to wake you up in the morning.
- It's time to clean house when the kids in the neighborhood use their fingers to write "wash me" in the dirt on your windows.
- It's time to clean house when there are more dishes in the kitchen sink than there are in the cabinets.
- It's time to clean house when you have enough dust bunnies under your bed to start a bunny farm.

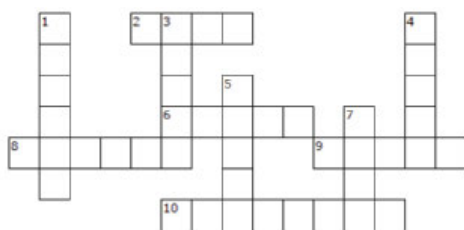

I think you get the idea! Today we're going to learn about a time Jesus did some house cleaning. It was time for the annual Passover celebration, so Jesus traveled to Jerusalem. When He went to the temple, He couldn't believe what He saw. People were selling cattle, sheep, and doves to be used as sacrifices in the temple. Some men were even charging people to change their money so they could pay their temple taxes. It looked more like a flea market than a place to worship God.

Jesus was so angry that He made a whip from rope, and drove the cattle, sheep, and those who were selling them out of the temple. He also turned over the money changers' tables. To the ones who were selling the doves, He said, "Get out of here! How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!" Jesus did some serious house cleaning that day!

As we think about Jesus cleansing the temple, we can also be reminded that there is some other cleaning that needs to be done. The Bible tells us that we are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God lives in us. This season of Lent is a good time for us to think about how our hearts might need cleansing.

God, help us to remember that we are Your temple and that Your Spirit lives in us. Help us to keep our lives clean and useful for service to You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Paschal Candle represents Christ, the Light of the World. The pure beeswax of the candle represents the sinless Christ who was formed in the womb of His Mother. The wick signifies His humanity; the flame, His Divine Nature, both soul and body. The Paschal Candle is lit each day during Mass throughout the Easter season until Pentecost.

This year's Paschal Candle at St. Bernard Church was made possible by a generous donation from:

Donald and Patricia Brierley in memory of
Stanley and Carolina Fajkowski

Next week our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to vulnerable people here and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the collection and reveal Christ's love to those most in need.

Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

WINTER POLICY

The winter policy for St. Jeanne Jugan Parish is in effect for daily Masses Monday through Friday.

The policy states that when Enfield Public Schools cancel or delay school on that day, the Daily Mass at Holy Family, St. Bernard, St. Martha, and St. Patrick Churches will be cancelled for that day as well; this includes the livestream for these Masses. This policy is in place for the safety of all.

The intentions for these Masses will be rescheduled at a mutually agreeable time. You may call the rectory of the Church where your Mass intention was scheduled to discuss a new date.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AT ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our Chapel offers individuals the opportunity to spend quiet prayerful time with Jesus. Eucharistic Adorers commit themselves to an hour of silent prayer each week in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Sacred Heart Chapel is currently open Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:00AM to 10:00PM at St. Martha Church.

There is interest in opening the chapel up on Fridays 9AM to 10PM. But before this can happen, each hour needs a committed person that will cover that hour each week.

Can you commit to spending one hour a week in the presence of the Lord?

The Giving Store

ST. JEANNE JUGAN PARISH | 67 Pearl Street, Enfield, CT
Corner of Pearl Street & High Street

Donation Drop-Off:
Friday, March 1st from 11AM to 1PM

Occasionally, we notice our inventory being depleted to a point that we are going to run out of some of the clothing that is very popular. That happened two weeks ago when we had no children's jackets, blankets and boots. The parishioners of St. Jeanne Jugan Parish must have ESP, because this past Tuesday we experienced the largest drop off! Guess what? You're right! We received many children's jackets, blankets and boots - just what we needed! It was great and we are so thankful. Just a reminder, that we will no longer accept Fall/Winter clothing the week of March 17th. Thank you fellow parishioners for your generosity and your ESP!

May God Bless you all and keep you, your family, friends and all you hold dear safe!

ST. JEANNE JUGAN PARISH PRAYER LINES

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call one of the St. Jeanne Jugan Parish Prayer Lines?

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific, or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

Requests can be placed through St. Patrick Church by calling (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM, through St. Martha Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours and through St. Bernard Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 121.

The St. Jeanne Jugan Youth Group will be selling Palm Crosses to raise money to attend Steubenville East! Palm crosses will be available 3/16-17 and 3/23-24 on the schedule listed below, as supplies last. We are encouraging pre-orders to be sure you can get a cross.

Crosses are $10 each, payable by cash (exact change please) or check to St. Jeanne Jugan Parish. There are 200 crosses available.

Crosses will also be available for sale/pick-up in the office at St. Martha's March 18-22 from 9:30AM to 4:30PM.

Sale Schedule:

3/16: 4:00PM Mass - SM;
