UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: “How can Satan cast out Satan?” To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we're honest, our response to some degree is: “How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!” But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here's what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. “I'll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy.” “She's already trying to get ahead of me.” “That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs.” And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind's sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus' cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of “casting out Satan by Satan” and ushers in a new one he calls “the Kingdom of God.” He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the “stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house.” This week let's notice the ways we “cast out Satan by Satan,” and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand. — Father John Muir

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

With the sale of St. Adalbert church, the proceeds from the sale were deposited in both the St. Adalbert Cemetery Endowment Fund and the operating account.

The buyer offered $650,000 for the property and after paying the expenses for the sale, the Parish received a check for $564,080.22 which was deposited in the Endowment Fund.

$5,208.19 was kept by the attorney for any additional expenses and was deposited in St. Adalbert Cemetery's operation account.

A very generous donor recently paid for the repaving of the St. Adalbert cemetery. I think the cemetery is in acceptable condition.
