UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

— Father John Muir

We wish Karen a blessed and happy retirement. We will miss her!

Our Religious Education program is excited to welcome Nicole (Santarella) Santos as our new Confirmation Assistant. Nicole has grown up in our Parish, attending St. Martha School for Grades K-8, and is married with two children. She is looking forward to her new role in our Confirmation program. Welcome Mrs. Santos!

Notes From Our Pastor:

1. I bring good news for our Parish! Fr. Kelechi, who has been serving part-time at St. Jeanne Jugan and weekends at Our Lady of Sorrows in Hartford, was recently assigned full-time to our Parish. His assignment in Hartford ended June 30th. I welcome him to our Parish staff.
2. The other good news, is about the carnival Net Income. Our Net Income increased by $7,397.47, due to additional credit card income from the rides and booths. The 2024 Carnival Net Income is now $66,536.06. I want to thank ALL who made this a big success!
3. Lastly, the work of replacing the pavement of the driveways and parking lot at St. Martha Church began July 8th. It is expected to take several weeks. I would ask for your patience as work progresses. There will be changes to access points and parking areas temporarily. When these occur, alternatives will be made available and announced. This project is a necessary improvement to our facilities and will improve our access and use of the facility.

Thanks!

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific, or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

Requests can be placed through St. Patrick Church by calling (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM, through St. Martha Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours and through St. Bernard Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 121.
