UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

The famous Russian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky said, "Love in action is a harsh and dreadful thing." In the Gospel reading this week, Jesus does something harsh and dreadful — he watches his own disciples abandon him. What could possibly be loving about that?

Well, we notice the context is Jesus' teaching about eating and drinking his body and blood. His followers hear this and say, "This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?" (John 6:60). We shouldn't imagine we'd do anything different, because not even the ones who stay, like Peter, seem to understand what Jesus is saying. Then we hear this devastating line, "Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him" (John 6:66). Besides the night of the Last Supper, only now do Jesus' disciples abandon him. And, painfully, Jesus just lets them go.

The best way to make sense out of this is love. Jesus is God's love in action. He wants to become one with those whom He loves. He wants to love them as His own body. Yes, the oneness manifested in the Eucharist sounds harsh and dreadful because it is rooted in love which is willing to risk abandonment and separation to attain its goal: to be one body with the beloved. It is both terrifying and wonderful that Jesus will risk losing us in order to be one with us. Our response? Lord, we cannot grasp a love so great, but please help us never to abandon it, either.

— Father John Muir

A Note from Fr. Mathew

Starting 8/18, and for the next few weeks, I will be away from the Parish. I am traveling to Kerala, India, to visit my first cousin, Sr. Mary K., who is seriously ill with ovarian cancer. It was diagnosed late and since then, she has had surgery and chemo. Unfortunately, the cancer has come back more aggressively and no more medical treatment is possible. She is in palliative care, a unit which she founded and staffed at the hospital she previously worked at as a nurse. We grew up together back in the good old days. I am hoping to spend a few final days of her life holding her hands, praying and wishing her a peaceful journey home. Her community Medical Mission Sisters is taking good care of her. Please keep her in your thoughts and whisper a prayer.

Miss me a little at the picnic! God bless you.

- Fr. Mathew

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns for the intentions of Anthony Caruso, Seminarian at the request of Donald and Patricia Brierley.

At St. Martha Church the sanctuary lamp burns in memory of Jill Williams at the request of Sue Williams and Family.

SJJ PARISH PRAYER LINES

Are you or someone you know in need of prayer? Why not call one of the SJJ Parish Prayer Lines?

The lines are easy to use and the request can be as specific, or as general as you wish!

The Prayer Line works like this: the request goes out through a network of members who will then pray for and pass on the request to their individual groups, thus forming a "prayer line."

Requests can be placed through St. Patrick Church by calling (860) 745-6492 between the hours of 9:00AM and 9:00PM, through St. Martha Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 142 during office hours and through St. Bernard Church by calling the parish office at (860) 962-4001, ext. 121.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AT ST. MARTHA CHURCH

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our Chapel offers individuals the opportunity to spend quiet prayerful time with Jesus. Eucharistic Adorers commit themselves to an hour of silent prayer each week in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Sacred Heart Chapel is now open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:00AM to 10:00PM at St. Martha Church.

All the hours have at least one committed person, but a second works out better. Can you commit to spending one hour a week in the presence of the Lord?

If you are called to this beautiful ministry, please call Flo Radziewicz at (860) 216-7471.

La Comunidad Fuerza de Dios los invita todos los Lunes de 7:00PM a 9:00PM en el Salóm St. Francis de nuestra parroquia St. Martha, a una reunion mas de alabanza, oracion y compartir la Palabra de Dios.

Informes (860) 265-0687.

Dios espera por ti para que lo conozcas como El quiere ser conocido.
