UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

— Father John Muir

NOTES FROM FR. GOLAS

It is with sadness that I learned this week of our organist and music director at Holy Family Church passing at home. He was a dedicated, skilled musician and good leader for our choir. We will miss his smile and the uncomplicated ways he brought his talent to our Parish community. Let us pray for Michael and may he rest in peace.

I will be away for a conference at St. Vincent DePaul Seminary from Sunday, January 26th through Thursday, January 30th and then some time for a vacation after that, until Friday, February 7th. Father Ed Przygocki, a priest of the Missionaries of the Holy Apostles in Cromwell, will be here to help out in the Parish - along with Father Mathew and Father Kelechi.

Lastly, Fr. Bruno fell at his house before Christmas. He is in a nursing facility downstate. I ask that we keep him in our prayers.

At St. Bernard Church the sanctuary candle burns in memory of William J. Hyde and Maryann LeBeau at the request of Ted and Chris Kiczuk.

At St. Martha Church the sanctuary lamp burns in memory of Maurice Chasse at the request of Lise and Denis Houle.

REST IN PEACE

DISCUSSION

Do any of you know the "Hokey Pokey" song and dance? (Pause for answers.) It goes like this (Invite kids who know the song to sing along): "You put your right hand in. You put your right hand out. You put your right hand in, and you shake it all about. You do the Hokey Pokey, And you turn yourself around. That's what it's all about."

This time, we'll sing the same song, but replace "right hand" with "left hand." Follow along with the hand motions as we sing: "You put your left hand in. You put your left hand out. You put your left hand in, and you shake it all about. You do the Hokey Pokey, and you turn yourself around. That's what it's all about." After the left hand, you follow the same instructions with your left foot, right foot, and your head. At the end, you put your "whole self" in! What a fun dance!

But can you imagine what would happen if you were doing the "Hokey Pokey," and your left hand refused to do the "Hokey Pokey" because it wanted to be the right foot? Or what if the head said, "I don't need any of you. I can Hokey Pokey all by myself!" This just isn't possible. The hands, the feet, and the head are all part of the "whole self." And no part can take the place of another.

Even though the "Hokey Pokey" is kind of silly, it is a good picture of the parts that make up the church. The Bible says, "The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I don't need you!' And the head cannot say to the feet, 'I don't need you!'" Every person is an important part of the church, just like every body part is important to the whole body. Together, we make up what is called the "Body of Christ."

We each have special gifts that are important to God and His church. Some of us have been given the gift to be a pastor or teacher, while others have been given the gift of healing, helping others, or leading people. Maybe you have the gift of being creative, being a great listener, or something totally different. What is one special gift God has given you? How can you use it to serve others?

Just as God gave us hands, feet, eyes, and ears to meet the needs of the whole body, He has given different people different gifts to meet the needs of the whole church.

Dear God, thank You for giving each of us special gifts. Help us to remember that each of us is an important part of the Body of Christ. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Four Chaplains Mass at St. Patrick Church on Sunday, February 9, 2024, 10:00AM Mass

The John Maciolek Post offers the Four Chaplains Mass each year at St. Patrick Church. The USAT Dorchester was torpedoed by a German sub on February 3, 1943. As it went down, four chaplains helped others get off and gave up their life jackets. Here is a quote from a survivor: "As I swam away from the ship, I looked back. The flares had lighted everything. The bow came up high and she slid under. The last thing I saw, the Four Chaplains were up there praying for the safety of the men. They had done everything they could. I did not see them again. They themselves did not have a chance without their life jackets."

Find more of the story at: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Four_Chaplains Please join us for this tribute to faith and sacrifice.

Coffee Hour will follow mass in Fr. Weaver Hall.
